SHARE ACCOUNT AGREEMENT AND TRUTH-IN-SAVINGS DISCLOSURE

In the Agreements and Disclosures, set forth in this document, the words "I," "me," "mine," "my," "us," and "our" mean each and every person who is subject to terms set forth in this Agreement and Disclosures set forth herein, as a result of signing an Account Signature Card for one or more share account(s) with you. (The term "person" includes individuals, trust corporations, limited liability companies, limited liability partnerships, partnership, and other unincorporated organizations.) The words "you," "your," "yours," and "Credit Union" refer to Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union. Facsimile and electronic signatures (as subject to the e-Sign Act) will be recognized as my authorization and accepted as my legal signature. Only accounts owned by individuals for personal, household, or family purposes are eligible under the agreements and disclosures set forth in document for the protections given to individuals under consumer protection laws.

ARBITRATION AND WAIVER OF CLASS ACTION

I and the Credit Union agree that we shall attempt to informally settle any and all disputes arising out of, affecting, or relating to my accounts or the products or services the Credit Union has provided, will provide or has offered to provide to me, and/or any aspect of my relationship with the Credit Union (hereafter referred to as the "Claims"). If that cannot be done, then I agree that any and all Claims that are threatened, made, filed or initiated after the Effective Date (defined below) of this Arbitration and Waiver of Class Action provision ("Arbitration Agreement"), even if the Claims arise out of, affect or relate to conduct that occurred prior to the Effective Date, shall, at the election of either you or I, be resolved by binding arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") in accordance with its applicable rules and procedures for consumer disputes ("Rules"), whether such Claims are in contract, tort, statute, or otherwise. The Rules can be obtained on the AAA website free of charge at adr.org; or, a copy of the Rules can be obtained at any Credit Union branch upon request. Either you or I may elect to resolve a particular Claim through arbitration, even if one of us has already initiated litigation in court related to the Claim by: (a) making written demand for arbitration upon the other party, (b) initiating arbitration against the other party, or (c) filing a motion to compel arbitration in court. AS A RESULT, IF EITHER YOU OR I ELECT TO RESOLVE A PARTICULAR CLAIM THROUGH ARBITRATION, I WILL GIVE UP YOUR RIGHT TO GO TO COURT TO ASSERT OR DEFEND MY RIGHTS UNDER THIS AGREEMENT AND DISCLOSURE (EXCEPT FOR CLAIMS BROUGHT INDIVIDUALLY WITHIN SMALL CLAIMS COURT JURISDICTION, SO LONG AS THE CLAIM REMAINS IN SMALL CLAIMS COURT). This Arbitration Agreement shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act set forth in Title 9 of the US Code to the fullest extent possible, notwithstanding any state law to the contrary, regardless of the origin or nature of the Claims at issue. This Arbitration Agreement does not prevent me from submitting any issue relating to my accounts for review or consideration by a federal, state, or local governmental agency or entity, nor does it prevent such agency or entity from seeking relief on my behalf.

1. Selection of Arbitrator: The Claims shall be resolved by a single arbitrator. The arbitrator shall be selected in accordance with the Rules and must have experience in the types of financial transactions at issue in the Claims. In the event of a conflict between the Rules and this Arbitration Agreement, this Arbitration Agreement shall supersede the conflicting Rules only to the extent of the inconsistency. If AAA is unavailable to resolve the Claims, and if you and we do not agree on a substitute forum, then you can select the forum for the resolution of the Claims.

2. Effective Date: This Arbitration Agreement is effective upon the 61st day after you provide it to me ("Effective Date"), unless I opt-out in accordance with the requirements of the RIGHT TO OPT-OUT provision below.
3. Claims Arising Prior to Effective Date: THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT APPLIES TO ALL CLAIMS THAT ARE FILED OR INITIATED AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE, EVEN IF THE CLAIM ARISES OUT OF, AFFECTS, OR RELATES TO CONDUCT THAT OCCURRED PRIOR TO THE EFFECTIVE DATE. If a Claim is filed or initiated prior to the Effective Date, this Arbitration Agreement will not apply to such Claim.
4. Arbitration Proceedings: The arbitration shall be conducted within 50 miles of my residence at the time the arbitration is commenced. Any claims and defenses that can be asserted in court can be asserted through arbitration. The arbitrator shall be entitled to award the same remedies that a court can award, including public injunctive relief under California Unfair Competition Law and Consumer Legal Remedies Act. Discovery shall be available for non-privileged information to the fullest extent permitted under the Rules. The Arbitrator's award can be entered as a judgment in court. Except as provided in applicable statutes, the arbitrator's award is not subject to review by the court and it cannot be appealed. The Credit Union shall pay for any filing, administration, and arbitrator fees imposed on me by the AAA. However, I will be responsible for my own attorney's fees, unless I prevail on my Claim in the arbitration, in which case, you will pay my attorney's fees. However, if the Credit Union prevails, then I will be required to pay your attorneys' fees and cost. Any determination as to whether this Arbitration Agreement is valid or enforceable in part or in its entirety will be made solely by the arbitrator, including without limitation any issues relating to whether a Claim is subject to arbitration; provided, however, the enforceability of the Class Action Waiver set forth below shall be determined by the Court.
5. Class Action Waiver: ANY ARBITRATION OF A CLAIM WILL BE ON AN INDIVIDUAL BASIS. I UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT I AM WAIVING THE RIGHT TO PARTICIPATE AS A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE OR CLASS MEMBER IN A CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT OR MASS ARBITRATION. I WAIVE MY RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL.
6. Severability: In the event that the Class Action Waiver in this Arbitration Agreement is found to be unenforceable for any reason, the remainder of this Arbitration Agreement shall also be unenforceable. If any provision in this Arbitration Agreement, other than the Class Action Waiver, is found to be unenforceable, the remaining provisions will remain fully enforceable.
7. Survival: This Arbitration Agreement will survive termination of the Agreement and Disclosure.
8. RIGHT TO OPT-OUT: I have the right to opt out of this Arbitration Agreement, provided I notify the Credit Union of my intent to do so within 60 days after it is provided to me. My opt-out is only effective if I notify the Credit Union in writing by sending a letter to Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union, 2255 North Ontario Street, Ste. 320, Burbank, CA 91504 within such 60-day period. My letter must include my Member Number and a statement indicating that I want to opt out of the Arbitration Agreement. If I fail to opt out within this 60-day period, I will be deemed to have consented to the resolution of my Claims through binding arbitration. In the event I opt out, it shall not affect other terms and conditions of your Agreement and Disclosure, or of my relationship with the Credit Union.

9. Amendment/Termination of this Arbitration Agreement:
Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement and Disclosure to the contrary, you will not amend or terminate this Arbitration Agreement unless you provide me with sixty (60) days prior written notice of such amendment or termination and an opportunity to opt-out of the amendment or termination during that time period.
10. Inapplicable to Certain Loans: This Arbitration Agreement will not apply to any Claims involving: (a) a consumer real estate loan; or (b) a consumer loan you provide me, to the extent I and/or a co-borrower are "covered borrowers" under the Military Lending Act.
11. Questions: For more details or if you have questions, you may call us or visit a branch. If you have questions about AAA procedures, you should check AAA's website (adr.org) or call AAA at 800.778.7879.

I. PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS

DIVIDEND RATES: The frequency and conditions upon which dividends are paid on all accounts are in accordance with the Bylaws of this Credit Union, the Federal Credit Union Act, and the Truth-In-Savings Act and Regulations. For all accounts except term share (certificate) accounts, the dividend rate and Annual Percentage Yield (APY) may change monthly as determined by the Board of Directors. Dividends are paid from available earnings, after required transfers to reserves at the end of a dividend period.

For specific dividend rate(s) and yield(s) for each type of dividend-bearing account, I will refer to the Dividend Rates and Annual Percentage Yields sheet, which is incorporated by this reference. I may call 800.877.2345, or access the Credit Union's website at www.figfcu.org for current rates on all accounts.

For all accounts, dividends will be compounded monthly and will be credited monthly. For all account types, the dividend period is monthly. For example, the beginning date of the first dividend period of the calendar year is January 1 and the ending date of such dividend period is January 31. All other dividend periods follow this same pattern of dates. The dividend declaration date follows the ending date of a dividend period, and for the example is January 31.

If I close my account before dividends are credited, I will receive the accrued dividends.

Balance Computation Method: Dividends are calculated by the daily balance method which applies a daily periodic rate to the beginning balance in the account each day.

Dividends begin to accrue the day after I make a deposit to my account.

II. TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL ACCOUNTS

1. I must be and remain a member to maintain any account. The par value of a share in this Credit Union is $5.00. If I fail to complete payment of one (1) share within six (6) months of my admission to membership, or within six (6) months from the increase in the par value in shares, or if I reduce my primary savings account balance below the par value of one (1) share and do not increase the balance to at least the par value of one (1) share within six (6) months of the reduction, I may be terminated from membership.
2. All accounts (except checking accounts) are not transferable except as defined in 12 CFR, Part 204.
3. You reserve the right to require that withdrawals made from my share accounts be made in minimum amounts as established from time to time by Board policy.

4. The maximum cash share withdrawal shall be $1,500 unless I have made arrangements for a larger amount 48 hours in advance. For all accounts except the Money Market account, the minimum cash share withdrawal shall be $10 or all funds available (if the funds available are less than $10).
5. In order to avail of check cashing services, my account must be in good standing (i.e., no delinquent loans or negative balance accounts), and I must meet at least one of the following criteria:
 - a. Have an open checking account
 - b. Have at least $250 in aggregate deposits
 - c. Have a current outstanding or open loan (including credit card or other line of credit) or have paid off a loan within the last sixty (60) days
6. Your delay in enforcing any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and Disclosure shall not prohibit you from enforcing such terms and conditions at a later date.
7. You reserve the right upon thirty (30) days written notice to change any provision of or establish new provisions to this Agreement and Disclosure.
8. You may endorse checks or drafts for me which you receive for deposit.
9. You are not responsible for items lost while not in your possession.
10. The Credit Union will mail all statements and other notices only to the person whose signature appears first or is submitted electronically first on the Account Signature Card unless otherwise required by law. (If I have elected to receive statements and notices electronically, a notice that Credit Union statements and notices are available shall be sent to me by email.) I shall exercise reasonable care and promptness, examining my statements and any notices sent to me. I agree to promptly notify the Credit Union of any error or unauthorized payment, including but not limited to an altered item, unauthorized or missing signature or endorsement, a missing or diverted deposit, or any other error or discrepancy on my statements. Excluding transactions that are "electronic funds transfers" (see the Electronic Services Disclosure and Agreement for further information regarding electronic funds transfers). If I fail to uphold these duties, I understand and agree that I am precluded from asserting the error, unauthorized payment, or fee, against the Credit Union if: 1) I suffer a loss on the item because of my failure, or 2) pay on another item presented by the same wrongdoer if the payment was made before I properly notified the Credit Union, or 3) the Credit Union has erred in connection with my account. Notification must be in writing and received by the Credit Union within sixty (60) days of the date of the statement. If I fail to uphold my duties, but I can prove that the Credit Union failed to exercise ordinary care in the payment of the relevant items, then the above preclusion will not apply, and the loss on the items will be allocated between the Credit Union and me to the extent our respective actions contributed to the loss. If I fail to examine my statement and report any unauthorized item (which is not covered by the Electronic Services Disclosure and Agreement) within one (1) year after my statement or the item has been made available to me, I cannot recover from the Credit Union, even if the Credit Union failed to exercise ordinary care in paying a non-electronic funds transfer item.
11. If a Credit Union fee or charge is assessed against my account, which I do not think should have been assessed, I will notify the Credit Union in writing the date and amount of the charge or fee and the reason why I do not think that the charge or fee should have been assessed against my account. If my notice about the assessed charge or fee is not received within 60 (sixty) days of the issuance of the statement (or eStatement) by the Credit Union, I will have waived my right to dispute the Credit Union charge or fee.

12. Any notice of a change of terms of the Credit Union's Share Account Agreement, Truth-In-Savings Disclosure, and Electronic Services Disclosure and Agreement will be accepted if I continue to accept any membership services and/or continue as a Member of the Credit Union.
13. I agree that it will be deemed and understood that I have read promptly all notices and statements sent to me.
14. You or I may terminate an account(s) at any time. I understand, however, that your authority may not be changed or terminated except by written notice to you which will not affect prior transactions. In addition, if you receive written notice from any owner that withdrawals, in accordance with the terms of the account, should not be permitted, you may refuse, without liability, to pay any sums on deposit pending determination of the rights of the owners. Further, if there is more than one (1) owner and there is a conflict among us, you may require the signatures/authorization of all owners. Such written notice(s) shall become effective only upon receipt and after you have had a reasonable opportunity to act thereon.
15. You reserve the right to close any account(s) discovered to be deliberately manipulated to your detriment and/or your membership. "Manipulation" includes, but is not limited to, kiting and repeated patterns of transactions which have no apparent business reason other than to take advantage of Regulation "CC" hold periods and/or "interest float" to your detriment.
16. You may recognize the signature of anyone who signed an Account Signature Card as authorized to transact business on that account. Any payment made on my account by you in good faith and in reliance on the terms and conditions of this Agreement and Disclosure and the Account Signature Card shall be valid and discharge you from liability.
17. You reserve the right to require me to give not less than seven (7) and up to sixty (60) days written notice of my intention to withdraw funds from any account except checking accounts.
18. I understand and agree that Individual, Joint, Trust (Totten or Passbook) and Pay-on-Death accounts may be subject to Multiple Party Accounts Law, Division 5 of the California Probate Code, as now in effect or hereafter amended.
19. Ownership for the primary account and all sub-accounts shall be established and determined by the most recent Account Signature Card or other document(s) evidencing such account(s). A different form of ownership may be established by executing a new additional Signature Card(s). A new account number may be assigned. The word "owner(s)" means the owner of the funds in the case of an individual account, and it means the joint owners (both as an individual and as a group) in the case of a joint or other account with multiple parties.

Owner(s) agree that any and all sums heretofore or hereafter on deposit shall be subject to withdrawal or receipt by any owner and any such payment shall be valid and discharge you from any liability.
20. I agree to notify you promptly of any change of address. I may notify you in person at your office or by sending a written and signed notice to:
Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union
P.O. Box 2723,
Torrance CA 90509
21. I am required to keep you informed of my current address. In the event that I fail to do this, a charge may be made to my account as stated in your Service Charges and Fee Schedule and for the actual cost of a necessary locator service. This charge will be imposed in accordance with your bylaws.

22. All non-cash payments shall be credited subject to final payment on the day of deposit. My right to withdraw the funds represented by certain checks, savings or other items I deposit may be delayed for several days. I will be notified if my right to withdraw will be delayed. I will refer to the Credit Union's Disclosure of Funds Availability Policy for further details.
23. All accounts are subject to the Credit Union's fees as set forth in the Credit Union's current Service Charges and Fees schedule. A copy of the Service Charges and Fees in effect as of the printing of this Share Account Agreement, Truth-In-Savings Disclosure and Electronic Services Disclosure and Agreement is attached hereto. The fees and charges listed in the Service Charges and Fees schedule are subject to change without notice if the Credit Union lowers a fee. However, the Credit Union will give me thirty (30) days' notice if the Credit Union increases any fee. An updated Service Charges and Fees schedule can be obtained at any time by requesting one in writing or on the Credit Union's website on the same page as the Credit Union's current Share Account Agreement, Truth-In-Savings Disclosure and Electronic Services Disclosure and Agreement.
24. The Credit Union can debit any and all charges and fees incurred by me against any account on which I am an owner, joint owner, or a signatory, except against my Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs) and Health Saving Accounts (HSAs). (The Credit Union can debit fees or charges that are incurred in connection with my IRA against my IRA and fees and charges incurred in connection with my HSA against my HSA.) If there are not sufficient funds available in my accounts, the charges will be immediately payable on demand and, when incurred on Checking accounts, will be treated as an overdraft.
25. If I make a deposit into one of my Credit Union accounts (or make a payment on a Credit Union credit or loan account) by check, Debit Card, or any another means, and that deposit/payment is returned to the Credit Union unpaid for any reason, the Credit Union will have the right to charge me an Insufficient Funds Charge Returned Item fee. The amount of the Insufficient Funds Charge Returned Item fee is set forth in the Service Charges and Fees schedule attached to this Agreement.
26. I agree that you will not be responsible for any damages I incur in the event I deposit an item with you which is subsequently returned unpaid by the paying bank and that return is "late" due to markings on the back of the check caused by me or a prior endorser.
27. California law states that inactive account balances must be turned over to the state after a period of three (3) years if I have not:
 - a. Increased or decreased the amount of the account or presented an appropriate record for crediting of interest or dividends; or
 - b. Corresponded in writing with you concerning the account; or
 - c. Otherwise indicated an interest in the account as evidenced by a memorandum on file with you.
 - d. Any sum payable on any other written instrument on which the Credit Union is directly liable, including, by way of illustration but not of limitation, any draft, cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check, that has been outstanding for more than three years from the date it was payable, or from the date of its issuance if payable on demand, when the owner, for more than three years, has not corresponded electronically or in writing with the Credit Union concerning it, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the Credit Union.

Escheat laws vary by state. You comply with all applicable state laws.

28. Federal law requires you to report certain domestic currency transactions and foreign transactions. This reporting applies to all member accounts at the Credit Union.
29. You agree to retain and furnish to me, if requested, copies of certain records pertaining to my account and that these records will be available to me for the timeframe required by law. I agree to pay applicable fees as listed in your Service Charges and Fee Schedule for those copies.
30. In the event that a cashier's, teller's, or certified check is lost or stolen, I must execute and deliver to you a written Declaration of Loss and Claim for Reimbursement in a form acceptable and in time for you to have a reasonable time to act. I further understand and agree that the Declaration of Loss and Claim for Reimbursement is not enforceable until the latter of (i) the time the Declaration of Loss and Claim for Reimbursement is properly delivered to you, or (ii) the 90th day following the date of the cashier's or teller's check, or the 90th day following the date of the acceptance of a certified check. I agree to indemnify you for any loss or claim occasioned by your attempting to, or making, my stop payment.
31. I authorize you to gather whatever credit, checking account and employment information you consider appropriate from time to time. I understand that this will assist you, for example, in determining my initial and ongoing eligibility for my account. I authorize you to give information concerning your experiences with me to others.
32. Federal law requires that you obtain and have certified by me a Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) on all accounts. You will not open an account without this identification number. For additional information on this requirement, I will read "INSTRUCTION TO PAYER'S REQUEST FOR TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER AND CERTIFICATION (IRS FORM W-9)" which are found in Section III of this Agreement and Disclosure.
33. Member accounts in this Credit Union are federally insured by the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund. Most properly established share accounts in federally insured credit unions are insured up to the Standard Maximum Share Insurance Amount (SMSIA), which is $250,000. Certain retirement accounts, such as IRAs and Keoghs, are insured up to an additional $250,000. Generally, if a credit union member has more than one account in the same credit union, those accounts are added together and insured in the aggregate. There are exceptions, though. I may obtain additional separate coverage on multiple accounts, but only if I have different ownership interests or rights in different types of accounts and properly complete account forms and applications. For example, if I have a regular savings account and an Individual Retirement Account (IRA) at the same credit union, the regular savings account is insured up to $250,000 and the IRA is separately insured up to $250,000. However, if I have a regular savings account and a share draft account in my own name, I will not have additional coverage. Those accounts will be added together and insured up to $250,000 as my individual account.
34. In the event that a negative balance is created in my share account (whether due to debit card activity, non-sufficient funds activity, Credit Union imposed fees and charges, or otherwise), I understand and agree that you may transfer funds to such account from any other share account (excluding IRA, HSAs, and Bristol West accounts), including account(s) upon which I am a joint owner, in an amount equal to the negative account balance.

35. STATUTORY LIEN. I understand that you have a right to impress and enforce a statutory lien against my shares or dividends in the event of my failure to satisfy a financial obligation, and that you may enforce that right without further notice. You have a right to claim my shares and dividends equal to the amount of my outstanding financial obligation to the Credit Union, as that amount varies from time to time. I understand that you may enforce this lien only when I fail to satisfy an outstanding financial obligation due and payable to the Credit Union. If I am in default, you may debit funds in my account and apply them to the extent of any of my outstanding financial obligations, even if these obligations are not secured by shares.
36. ILLEGAL ACTIVITY. My accounts may be used for transactions performed on the Internet. However, I understand that my accounts or any Credit Union access device may not be used for any illegal activity or transaction. I may not use my account for the purchase of any goods or services on the Internet that involve gambling of any sort. Such transactions include, but may not be limited to any quasi-cash or online gambling transactions, any electronic commerce transaction conducted over an open network, and any betting transaction including the purchase of lottery tickets or casino gambling chips or off-track betting or wagering. However, in the event that a charge or a transaction described in this paragraph is approved, I understand that I will be responsible for such charges.

UNDERSTANDING MY ACCOUNT BALANCES

My Saving (share) and Checking (share draft) accounts have two types of balances: 1. “current” balance and 2. “available” balance. Both balances can be checked when I review my account online, on my Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union mobile banking app, at an automatic teller machine (ATM), or at a Credit Union branch. I understand the importance of knowing how the two balances work, so I know how much current (actual) money is in my account at any given time and how much money is available for me to spend. This section explains the difference between “current” and “available” balances and how they work.

My “current” balance is the total amount of all deposits, even though some portion of a deposit may be on hold and may not be available to me, less payment transactions that have “posted” to my account, but do not include payment transactions that have been authorized and are still pending, i.e., have not actually been paid yet. As a result, although the Credit Union’s use of the term “current balance” may make it sound like the number under the label “current balance” is an up-to-date display of what is in my account that I can spend, that is not always the case. Any holds for purchase or service transactions, holds on deposits, or holds on other checks, and payments and fees that have not yet posted will not appear in my current balance.

My “available” balance is the amount of money in my account that is available for me to use. The available balance is the current balance, less things like holds placed on deposits and pending transactions (such as pending Debit Card withdrawals from ATMs) that the Credit Union has authorized but has not yet posted to my account.

EFFECT OF AVAILABLE BALANCE ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS

1. An overdraft occurs when I do not have enough money available in my account to cover a transaction, but the Credit Union pays it anyway. The Credit Union can charge me a fee as described below and in the Service Charges and Fees schedule provided with this Agreement. Whether to pay an overdraft, regardless of any overdraft service I authorize, is always within the Credit Union’s discretion. This means that it is the Credit Union’s option to pay an overdrawn transaction. For this reason, I understand that the best thing I can do is to carefully keep records of all of my transactions drawn on my Checking accounts at the Credit Union and not allow them to be overdrawn. If the Credit Union returns an item unpaid (e.g., a check or ACH transaction), the Credit Union will charge me an Insufficient Funds Charge Returned Unpaid Item fee as detailed in the Service Charges and Fees schedule attached hereto.

2. For example, assume that I have a current balance of $50 and an available balance of $50 in my Credit Union Checking account. If I were to swipe my Credit Union Checking account Debit Card at a restaurant to buy lunch for $20, the merchant could ask the Credit Union to pre-authorize the payment. In this case, the Credit Union will reduce my available balance by $20 because once the Credit Union authorizes the payment, the Credit Union is obligated to pay that charge. My current balance remains $50 because this transaction has yet to post, but my available balance would be $30 because the Credit Union has committed to pay the restaurant $20. When the restaurant submits its bill for payment (which could be days later or even longer), the Credit Union will post the transaction to my account, and my current balance will be reduced by the actual amount of the debit, which could be more than $20.
3. The Credit Union uses the available balance at the time the Credit Union receives merchant authorization requests for my transactions to decide whether to authorize the transaction for payment. If a debit has been authorized when my account does not have sufficient available funds, and I have signed up for Overdraft Protection by linking my Checking account to another account I have at the Credit Union (see the section below entitled Signing Up For Overdraft Protection Options) or I have opted in to use the Credit Union's Privilege Pay – Debit Card Coverage on my ATM and one-time Debit Card transactions, and I am eligible at that time to use the Overdraft Protection or Privilege Pay, the Credit Union may authorize the debit. If I use either Privilege Pay or Privilege Pay – Debit Card Coverage I will be charged an Insufficient Funds (Paid) Privilege Pay fee. Alternatively, if I do not have sufficient available funds in my Checking account, the Credit Union may refuse authorization of the charge. The Credit Union also uses available balance at the time all other types of transactions are received and posted by the Credit Union to decide whether to charge Insufficient Funds Charge (Paid) Privilege Pay fees, Uncollected Funds Charge (Paid) fees, or in cases where the Credit Union has decided to return a check or ACH transaction unpaid an Insufficient Funds Charge Returned fee. The following examples illustrate how this works:
 - a. Assume my current and available balances are each $100. I swipe my Debit Card at a restaurant for $60, and the merchant requests authorization for the transaction in that amount, which the Credit Union approves and applies a $60 authorization hold on my available balance. As a result, my available balance will be reduced by $60, which means my available balance will only be $40. My current balance is still $100. Before the restaurant charge is sent to the Credit Union for posting, a check I wrote for $50 is submitted to the Credit Union for payment and posted. Because I have only $40 available in my account because I've used my Debit Card for $60 and the Credit Union has agreed to pay the restaurant $60 and applied a related $60 authorization hold, the available funds in my account will be overdrawn by $10, even though my current balance was $100 when the check was received and posted by the Credit Union for payment. In this case, the Credit Union would have the option to reject the check, and I would be charged an Insufficient Fund Charge Returned fee in the amount stated in the Service Charges and Fee schedule at the time of the transaction, or if I am eligible to use Privilege Pay or Overdraft Protection on my check, the Credit Union may pay the $50 check. However, if the Credit Union uses Privilege Pay to pay the check, I would be charged an Insufficient Funds Charge (Paid) Privilege Pay fee as set forth in the Service Charges and Fees schedule at that time.

- b. Assume my current and available balances are each $100, and I deposit a $5,000 check into my Checking account. The Credit Union puts a hold on the money from the check. Only the sum of $225 is made available from the check on the business day after I deposited the check. Before the hold is released on the remainder of the check, I write a $1,500 check which is presented to the Credit Union for payment. At the time the $1,500 check is presented, I do not have enough available funds to cover the full amount of the check because of the hold on the majority of the $5,000 check that was recently deposited. The Credit Union will have the right to return my $1,500 check unpaid and to charge me an Insufficient Funds Charge Returned fee, or pay the check and charge me an Uncollected Funds Charge (Paid) fee in the amount at that time stated in the Credit Union's Service Charges and Fees schedule.
- c. Assume my available balance is a negative amount. I go to a vendor or another financial institution that makes what is called a "micro-deposit verification transaction." (A micro-deposit transaction is when a vendor seeks to verify a checking account by depositing a very small amount of money, then usually shortly after that withdraws the same, very small amount of money.) If there are not sufficient available funds in my account when the vendor tries to make the withdrawal, either the Credit Union will pay the micro-withdrawal and will charge me an Insufficient Funds Charge (Paid) Privilege Pay fee, or the Credit Union will have the option to refuse the transaction, in which case I will be charged an Insufficient Funds Charge Returned fee.

I understand that I can still overdraw my account even though the available balance shows sufficient funds to cover a transaction that I want to make. This is because my available balance may not reflect all of my outstanding checks, automatic bill payments that I have authorized, or other outstanding transactions or fees that have not yet been paid from my account. These types of transactions are not reflected in my available balance until they are actually presented to the Credit Union for payment and posted to my account.

In addition, my available balance may not reflect all of my Debit Card transactions. For example, if a merchant obtains the Credit Union's prior authorization but does not submit a one-time Debit Card transaction for payment within three (3) business days of authorization (or for up to thirty (30) business days for certain types of Debit Card transactions), the Credit Union must release the authorization hold on the transaction. The available balance will not reflect the transaction once the hold has been released until the transaction has been received by the Credit Union and paid from my account because the Credit Union is generally obligated under card network rules to pay the merchant transaction when it posts.

HOW TRANSACTIONS ARE POSTED TO MY ACCOUNT

There are two types of transactions in my account, credits (i.e., deposits of money into my account(s)) and debits (i.e., payments out of my account(s)). This section explains how each type of transaction is applied to my account so that I can know how much money is available to me at any given time. This section generally explains how and when the Credit Union posts transactions to my account.

- a. Credits. Most deposits are added to my account when the Credit Union receives them. The availability of deposit funds depends upon the type of check and the payor of the check. For some checks I deposit, none of the funds from the check will be available on the day I deposit it, and only the sum of $225 will be made available for me to spend on the next business day after the day the check was deposited into my Credit Union Checking account. The rest of the balance of the check may not be available for up to five (5) business days later. The rest of the check may be placed on hold for even longer if an extended hold is placed on the check.

b. Debits. There are several types of debit transactions. The most frequent types of debit transactions are described below. There are many ways transactions are presented for posting to my account by merchants, and the Credit Union is not necessarily in control of when transactions are received.

I. Checks. When I write a check, it is processed through various check clearing systems, which include, nonexclusively, the Federal Reserve. The Credit Union receives data files of cashed checks each day. The checks drawn on my account are compiled from these data files and posted to my account each day. Checks are paid based on the order the checks are presented to the Credit Union, to the extent there are sufficient available funds to pay them. The Credit Union does not control the order that checks are presented to it.

II. ACH Payments. The Credit Union receives data files every day from the Federal Reserve that contain ACH transactions. An example of an ACH transaction is automatic bill pays, for which I have signed up. Each day, ACH transactions charged against my account are posted in the order they are received.

III. ATM Withdrawals or Transfers. These are usually posted, and money is paid from my account in real time when the transaction is completed at an ATM.

IV. Debit Card Transactions. These are transactions where I make a purchase with my Debit Card. I may be asked to sign or input a PIN for the purchase, depending on the merchant. As described above, in these situations, the merchant may seek prior authorization for the transaction. When that happens, the Credit Union will generally place a temporary hold against the available funds in my account. The Credit Union refers to the temporary hold as an "authorization hold," and the amount of the authorization hold will be subtracted from my available balance. Authorizations are deducted from my available balance but not my current balance, as the Credit Union receives them throughout each day. At some point, after I authorize the transaction, it is processed by the merchant and submitted to the Credit Union for posting to my account. This can happen hours or sometimes days (weeks or even months) after I signed for it, depending on the merchant and its processing company. I understand that these payment requests are usually received in real time throughout the day and are posted to my Credit Union account as they are received. Please note: The amount of an authorization hold may differ from the actual payment because the final transaction amount may not yet be known to the merchant when the authorization request is submitted. For example, if I use my Credit Union Debit Card at a restaurant, a hold will be placed on the amount of the bill presented to me but when the transaction posts, it will include any tip that I may have added to the bill. This may also be the case when I swipe my Debit Card at gas stations, hotels, and other types of retail establishments. For example, if I have $40 in my account and use my Debit Card at a gas station, the station may ask the Credit Union to authorize $50 even though I only intended to pump $20 of gas. My available balance will be reduced by $50 until the final payment transaction is presented to the Credit Union and money is paid from my account. The Credit Union cannot control how much a merchant asks the Credit Union to authorize or when a merchant submits a transaction for payment. The fact that the Credit Union puts an authorization hold on my available balance does not mean the authorization is set aside and made available to pay the specific transaction authorized. The hold is simply a temporary reduction in my available balance because the Credit Union has authorized a transaction and is therefore obligated to pay it when presented.

V. Debit Card transactions can be recurring or nonrecurring.

Recurring transactions are where I use my Debit Card to set up a recurring payment, such as a gym membership. Recurring payments can be weekly, monthly, quarterly, or any other regular period. Nonrecurring transactions are one-time transactions authorized each time I use my Debit Card. Using my Debit Card at a restaurant is an example of a one-time or nonrecurring transaction. The Credit Union will rely on how the merchant characterizes the transaction for the purpose of processing it. My only recourse for an improperly coded transaction is with the merchant who submitted it to the Credit Union.

This is a general description of how certain types of transactions are posted. These practices may change, and the Credit Union reserves the right to pay items in any order the Credit Union chooses, as permitted by law.

- a. The Credit Union may receive multiple deposit and withdrawal transactions on my account in many different forms throughout each business day. This means I may be charged more than one Insufficient Funds Charge (Paid) Privilege Pay fee (if I am eligible) if the Credit Union pays multiple transactions when my account is overdrawn. The Credit Union will not charge me more than the amount stated in the Service Charges and Fees schedule per day for items paid through Privilege Pay. (I understand that to benefit from Privilege Pay for ATM and nonrecurring debit card transactions, I must separately opt in for it.) The current Service Charges and Fees schedule as of the printing of this Share Account Agreement, Truth-In-Savings Disclosure and Electronic Services Disclosure and Agreement is attached hereto and is subject to change. If I do not sign up for the Credit Union's Privilege Pay program for ATM and nonrecurring Debit Card transactions, the Credit Union will generally not pay such overdrawn items (unless I have some other form of overdraft protection) and will deny the transaction (return the item unpaid). Privilege Pay fees when the Credit Union pays for an overdrawn check, ATM, or recurring debit card charge) is also listed in the Service Charges and Fees schedule, as are the fees charged by the Credit Union for an Insufficient Funds Charge Returned item fee.
- b. It is possible for a merchant to resubmit a check or electronic transaction, such as a Debit Card charge, check, or ACH transaction, etc., more than once.
- i. Merchant can resubmit a check for payment multiple times after it has been returned unpaid by the Credit Union. An Insufficient Funds Charge Returned fee will be assessed on the check when it is represented for payment (i.e., settlement) to the Credit Union if my Checking account does not have sufficient available funds to pay the check, and neither Privilege Pay nor overdraft protection is used to pay the check. The Credit Union has no control over when a check might be presented for payment nor how many times it might be presented to the Credit Union for payment. If a check is presented more than once, with the same check number for the same amount, the Credit Union's computer system will recognize it as a duplicate check. The Credit Union's computer system will charge an Insufficient Funds Charge Returned fee. However, the Credit Union will manually reverse the fee assessed to my account so that I am not charged a fee more than once for the same item. This means while an Insufficient Funds Charge Returned fee and the reversal of that fee will show up on my statement because the check was resubmitted when I still did not have enough available funds to pay it, I will not be charged an Insufficient Funds Charged Returned fee on the check more than once.

- ii. The same is true for an ACH transaction that is returned unpaid by the Credit Union. An Insufficient Funds Charge Returned fee will be assessed on an ACH transaction when it is presented for payment (i.e., settlement) to the Credit Union if my account has insufficient available funds to pay the ACH transaction item, and the account is not eligible for Privilege Pay or overdraft protection. As with checks, the Credit Union has no control over when the ACH transaction is presented for payment, nor how many times it is presented for payment. When a merchant resubmits (i.e., represents) an ACH item, under the rules for ACHs, the merchant is supposed to add coding to indicate the ACH transaction is being resubmitted to the Credit Union. Also, the merchant is not supposed to change any other coding or the amount of the ACH transaction. The Credit Union's computer system will charge an insufficient funds fee if the funds are unavailable on the transaction each time it is presented for payment. However, if the merchant does what the merchant is supposed to do under the rules for ACHs, the Credit Union will manually reverse the fee assessed to my account so that I am not charged a fee more than once on the same transaction. This means that while an insufficient funds fee and the reversal of that fee will show up on my statement, I will not be charged an insufficient funds fee on the item more than once if the merchant does what the merchant is supposed to do. If, however, the merchant fails to code the ACH transaction as a representment, changes the other coding, or changes the transaction amount, the Credit Union's computer system will not recognize the transaction as a representment and a fee will be charged, but the Credit Union will not know that it should reverse the fee. If this happens, I understand that if I provide the Credit Union with proof that the same ACH transaction was presented more than once within sixty (60) days of the date the fee for the representment is indicated on my monthly Credit Union statement, the Credit Union will reverse the fees on the representment of the ACH transaction.

3. The best way to know how much money I have and avoid paying Insufficient Funds Charge (Paid) Privilege Pay fee, Privilege Pay fees, Uncollected Funds Charge (Paid), or Insufficient Funds Charge Returned fees is to record and track all my transactions closely and carefully.

SIGNING UP FOR OVERDRAFT PROTECTION OPTIONS

1. The Credit Union has different overdraft protection options that may help me if I write a check, make an ACH or ATM transaction, or use my Debit Card when I do not have enough available balance in my Credit Union Checking account.
2. I can sign a document authorizing the Credit Union to have an overdraft Savings transfer from one of my Credit Union regular savings accounts, another of my Checking accounts, or my Money Market accounts. If there are sufficient funds in my (linked) Savings, Checking, or Money Market account to pay a check, Debit Card charge, etc., I have made when I do not have sufficient available funds in my Checking account on which I wrote a check, used my Debit Card, or made an ACH or ATM transaction, the Credit Union has the authority to transfer funds from my linked account to pay the transaction. There is no charge for this service. I understand I must keep at least $5 in my regular Membership Savings account.

3. I can sign a document authorizing the Credit Union to take an advance from my Credit Union Line of Credit account and transfer it to my Checking account in the amount that is overdrawn, subject to the terms and conditions of my Line of Credit account up to my credit limit. If I do, the Credit Union has the authority to advance the needed funds to pay the transaction for which I have insufficient funds to my Checking account. While I will have to pay interest on the advance, I will not be charged a separate fee for the advance of credit to cover my transaction in my Checking account that would otherwise be overdrawn.
4. I can sign a document authorizing the Credit Union to take an advance from one or more of my Credit Union Credit Card accounts, subject to the terms and conditions of the Credit Card account(s) up to my credit limit. If I do, the Credit Union will have the authority to advance the needed funds to pay the transaction, for which I have insufficient available funds in my Checking account. There will be a cash advance fee charged to the Credit Card account. If I do not pay the entire balance on my Credit Union Credit Card account the month the cash advance is made, I will have to pay interest on the advance at the rate indicated on my Credit Card statement. There will not be an additional flat fee charged to my Checking account for this service.
5. Payment of Debit Card transactions, checks, ATM, and ACH transactions, from overdraft by a transfer from a Savings account or another Checking account, Credit Card account, line of credit, or Privilege Pay is discretionary. The Credit Union reserves the right to terminate access to either or both without prior notice.
6. I can also separately sign up for the Credit Union's Privilege Pay program for ATM and nonrecurring Debit Card transactions instead of one of the services listed above. The Credit Union retains the discretion to cover recurring Debit Card, check, and ACH transactions, if I am in good standing, even if I do not sign up for the Credit Union's Privilege Pay program for ATM and nonrecurring Debit Card transactions. I can withdraw my request to be signed up for the Credit Union's Privilege Pay program on one-time Debit Card and ATM transactions only by calling the Credit Union, sending a letter or email to the Credit Union, or using the One-Time Debit Card Transaction and ATM Privilege Pay Opt-In Form. To be opted out of Privilege Pay, the Credit Union must receive my instructions to opt out and have acknowledged receiving said instructions. I can also ask the Credit Union not to extend Privilege Pay on my checks, ACH and recurring Debit Card transactions the same way. The Credit Union must receive and acknowledge receiving my instructions to stop all Privilege Pay payments.
7. Each time Privilege Pay is used to pay an overdrawn item, a fee will be charged, up to the maximum charge per day, as indicated in the Service Charges and Fees schedule. Privilege Pay fees are subject to change. The amount overdrawn and fees charged under the Privilege Pay program will reduce the amount available for use on other items until I have repaid said sums. Even if I am eligible for Privilege Pay (including ATM and nonrecurring Debit Card overdraft coverage under Privilege Pay if I have signed up for it), the Credit Union will still have the discretion of whether to pay a check, Debit Card, ATM, or ACH or transaction, which is presented to the Credit Union and can refuse to pay any overdrafts under Privilege Pay at its discretion, even if it has previously paid similar overdrafts. In order for the Credit Union to be willing to pay an item under Privilege Pay, I have to be a Member in good standing, have available amounts under Privilege Pay for me to use, and have repaid all overdrawn items paid by the Credit Union for me within fifteen (15) calendar days of the Credit Union paying said items. In addition, I cannot be subject to a court order or levy, nor can there be any circumstance that in any way causes the Credit Union to be concerned it will not be repaid.

8. I can also sign up for email and/or text message alerts that will tell me if the balance in my Checking account falls below a specified balance. Standard text messaging fees from your service provider may apply. Text/SMS alerts may not be real time.
9. The Credit Union's payment of Debit Card transactions, checks, ATM, and ACH transactions, from overdraft by a transfer from a Savings account or another Checking account, Credit Card account, line of credit, or Privilege Pay is discretionary. The Credit Union reserves the right to terminate a Member's account(s) access to any or all of our different types of overdraft programs or Privilege Pay without prior notice.

4. Joint ownership of an account, in and of itself, does not constitute Credit Union membership. Joint owners may be non-members.
5. Except as set forth herein or in the applicable loan agreement(s), I may pledge any or all of the funds on deposit in an account as security for any loan(s) subject to then current loan policies. Further, a pledge of funds by any one of us shall be binding on all of us. I may not withdraw funds that are pledged as security on loan(s) without the written approval of a loan officer, except to the extent that such funds exceed my total primary and contingent liability to you. I may not withdraw any funds below the amount of my primary or contingent liability to you if I am delinquent as a borrower, or if borrowers for whom I am co-maker, endorser, or guarantor are delinquent, without the written approval of a loan officer.
6. A right of survivorship arising from the express terms of a joint account cannot be changed by a will.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL PAY-ON-DEATH (POD) DESIGNATIONS

2. In the event of my death or, if the account is held by more than one person, upon the death of my survivor owner(s), then and only then, you shall pay such account funds to the beneficiary if then living (if more than one beneficiary is designated, then equally to those beneficiaries living at the latter of the date of my death or the death of my survivor owners), but if no beneficiary is living at my death or the death of my survivor owner(s), you shall pay such account funds to my estate or the estate of my survivor owner(s). There is no right of survivorship between beneficiaries.
3. I may not pledge any or all of the funds on deposit in the account as collateral security for any loan(s).
4. A right of survivorship or a beneficiary designation in such a passbook trust account cannot be changed by a will.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO LIVING TRUST ACCOUNTS

1. The trustor(s) and trustee(s) opening the account will complete the Living Trust Membership Application and Agreement for a Credit Union Account in the name of trustee(s). The funds in trust are controlled by the Trust Instrument executed by the trustor(s). The Credit Union does not receive a copy of the Trust Instrument and shall in no event be liable for its contents. Trustee(s) and not the Credit Union assumes full responsibility for enforcing the provisions of the Trust Instrument. If this is a revocable trust, the trustor(s) is/are member(s) of the Credit Union.

All accounts opened in the name of the trust belong solely to the trust. No transfer of voting rights or other membership privilege is permitted by virtue of a transfer of shares. Accounts are not transferable, as defined in 12 CFR Part 204. It is understood that the trust under this Account Agreement has no voting rights at any membership meeting, although the individual member/trustor(s) retain their personal voting rights if they retain individual membership at the Credit Union.
3. I may move from a $200.00 to a $1,000.00 limit (or vice versa) every 31 days based on the presence of the appropriate ACH credit. Privilege Pay allows for my account to go negative, however if my account remains negative for 15 days or more, Privilege Pay will be suspended on all eligible accounts. You will charge Privilege Pay Service Charges and Overdrawn Account fees (see Service Charges and Fee Schedule) up to a daily maximum (see Service Charges and Fee Schedule). Once the daily maximum has been reached, I will not be charged for additional items clearing against that account. The daily maximum is cumulative for both Privilege Pay service charges and overdrawn accounts fees.

If my account is in good standing, I will be automatically set up for Privilege Pay. However, Federal regulations requires me to “opt-in” to Privilege Pay Overdraft for Debit Card transactions. Purchases made with my Debit Card or withdrawals made at an ATM may be declined if funds are not available in my checking or other overdraft accounts and I have not opted in to Privilege Pay. Checks and ACH items may still be paid without this request. (See “Opt-In Your Right to Request Privilege Pay Overdraft for One-Time Debit Transactions”.)

HIGH YIELD CHECKING

An initial deposit of $20 is required to open any Checking account. High Yield Checking is a dividend-earning checking account eligible for up to 5.00% annual percentage yield (APY) on the average daily balance in the Checking account, up to $5,000 (five thousand dollars) and 0.20% APY on balances over $5,000.

Dividends are calculated by applying a periodic rate to the average daily balance in the account for the dividend period.

To be eligible for the 5.00% APY dividend and up to $10 in ATM surcharge rebates per statement cycle on the High Yield Checking, the account holder, co-owners, and all signatories must each comply with the following conditions.

- 1) The account must have at least $1,000 in monthly minimum Direct Deposit made into the High Yield Checking account.
- 2) The account must have a minimum of 10 Debit Card point-of-sale (PIN and signature-based) transactions posted per statement cycle using the Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union Debit Card.
- 3) Each account holder, co-owner, and signatory on the account must be in good standing at the Credit Union.
- 4) The account holder must be signed up to receive eStatements and eNotices from the Credit Union.
- 5) Each co-owner and signatory on the account must be signed up to receive eNotices from the Credit Union.

- 6) Each account holder, co-owner, and signatory on the account must have a valid email address on file with the Credit Union.
- 7) Funds in the High Yield Checking account cannot be used as collateral on a "Share Secured Loan," (which requires the funds to be frozen).
- 8) No account holder(s), co-owner(s), nor any signatories on the account can be in breach of any agreement they have with the Credit Union, nor on any Credit Union policy.
- 9) Posted transactions count toward monthly minimums.

Dividends earned will be credited to the account at the end of the statement period.

Qualifying transactions must post and clear the account during the monthly qualification cycle. Should the account not qualify for ATM surcharge rebates and/or the 5.00% APY, the account will earn 0.20% APY on the Checking account balance. Any amounts in excess of the sum of $5,000.00 will earn the lower APY.

Transactions may take one or more business days from the transaction date to post to the account. At the time of the statement cycle date, the Credit Union will verify the combined products and services used since the previous cycle date to determine the qualification for the 5.00% APY and the eligibility for the ATM surcharge rebate.

If the minimum monthly $1,000 ACH Direct Deposit credit is not made in good and negotiable funds for a sixty (60) day period, the account will no longer be eligible for any ATM surcharge rebates or the 5.00% APY on balances up to $5,000.00, and any loan interest rate discount, nor the dividend rate bump up on the share certificate accounts.

Current dividend rates and the annual percentage yield can be found on the Credit Union's website and verified at a Credit Union Branch or by calling 800.877.2345. Dividend rates earned, ATM surcharge rebate amounts and qualifying dollar amounts for dividends earned are subject to change at any time. APYs, ATM surcharge rebate amounts, and eligibility criteria are subject to change at any time. Fees may reduce earnings.

CASHBACK CHECKING

An initial deposit of $20 is required to open any Checking account. CashBack Checking will earn a $5 reward and be eligible for up to $10 in ATM surcharge rebates per statement cycle. The account holder, co-owners, and all signatories must each comply with the following conditions.

- 1) The account must have at least $1,000 in monthly minimum direct deposit made into the CashBack Checking account.
- 2) The account must have a minimum of 10 Debit Card point-of-sale (PIN or signature-based) transactions posted per statement cycle using the Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union Debit Card.
- 3) Each account holder, co-owner, and signatory on the account must be in good standing at the Credit Union.
- 4) The account holder must be signed up to receive eStatements and eNotices from the Credit Union.
- 5) Each co-owner and signatory on the account must be signed up to receive eNotices from the Credit Union.
- 6) Each account holder, co-owner, and signatory on the account must have a valid email address on file with the Credit Union.

- 7) Funds in a CashBack Checking account cannot be used as collateral on a "Share Secured Loan," (which requires the funds to be frozen).
- 8) No account holder(s), co-owner(s), nor any signatories on the account can be in breach of any agreement they have with the Credit Union, nor on any Credit Union policy.
- 9) Posted transactions count toward monthly minimums.

Qualifying transactions must post and clear the account during the monthly qualification cycle. Transactions may take one or more business days from the transaction date to post to the account.

At the time of the statement cycle date, the Credit Union will verify the combined products and services used since the previous cycle date to determine the qualification for the $5 reward and the eligibility for the ATM surcharge rebate. If my monthly $1,000 ACH Direct Deposit credit is not made with good and negotiable funds for a sixty (60) day period, the loan discount and/or dividend rate bump up on the certificate will also be discontinued. The CashBack reward amount may be found on the Credit Union's website, verified at a Credit Union Branch, or by calling 800.877.2345. Rewards, ATM surcharge rebate amounts and eligibility criteria are subject to change at any time. Fees may reduce earnings.

The following terms apply to all Share Certificates, Timed Certificates, and Membership Savings accounts pledged as collateral on Shared Secured Loans:

- Any Membership Savings account or Certificates account frozen as collateral on any Share Secured Loan or Certificate Secured Loan is not eligible for a "bump" in APY dividend rates.

III. INSTRUCTION TO PAYER'S REQUEST FOR TAXPAYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER AND CERTIFICATION (IRS FORM W-9)

(Section References are to the Internal Revenue Code)

PURPOSE OF CERTIFICATION

A person (such as the Credit Union) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must get my correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report income paid to me, real estate transactions, mortgage interest I paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions I made to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA).

I must use Form W-9 to furnish my correct TIN to you, and, when applicable, (1) to certify that the TIN I am giving is correct (or that I am waiting for a number to be issued), (2) to certify that I am not subject to backup withholding, or (3) to claim exemption from backup withholding if I am an exempt payee.

Giving my correct TIN and making the appropriate certifications will prevent certain payments from being subject to backup withholding.

NOTE: If you give me a form other than a W-9 to request my TIN, I must use your form, if it is substantially similar to Form W-9.

WHAT IS BACKUP WITHHOLDING

Persons making certain payments to me must withhold and pay to the IRS. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that could be subject to backup withholding include interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, non-employee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding. If I give you my correct TIN, make the appropriate certifications, and report all my taxable interest and dividends on my tax return, my payments will not be subject to backup withholding.

Payments I receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. I do not furnish you with my TIN; or
2. The IRS tells you that I furnished an incorrect TIN; or
3. I am told by the IRS that I am subject to backup withholding because I did not report all my interest and dividends on my tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only); or
4. I do not certify to you that I am not subject to backup withholding under (3) above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only); or
5. I do not certify my TIN. See the Specific Instructions section on the next page for exceptions. Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding and information reporting. See the section entitled for Payees Exempt from Backup Withholding under Specific Instructions below if I am an exempt payee.

HOW TO GET A TIN

If I do not have a TIN, I should apply for one immediately. To apply, I must obtain Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Number Card (for individuals) at the local office of the Social Security Administration, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number (for business and all other entities), from the local Internal Revenue Service office. I must complete and file the appropriate form according to its instructions.

PENALTIES:

Failure to Furnish TIN

If I fail to furnish my correct TIN to you, I am subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless my failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil Penalty For False Information With Respect to Withholding

If I make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no imposition of backup withholding, I am subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal Penalty for Falsifying Information

Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject me to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs

If you disclose or use TINs in violation of Federal law, you may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

Name

If I am an individual, I must generally enter the name shown on my Social Security card. However, if I have changed my last name, for instance, due to marriage, without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, I may enter my first name, the last name shown on my Social Security card, and my new last name.

Sole Proprietor

I must furnish my individual name and either enter my Social Security Number (SSN) or Employer Identification Number (EIN) (The IRS prefers the SSN.) I may also enter my F name or "doing business as" on the business name line. I will enter my name(s) as shown on my Social Security card and/or as it was used to apply for my EIN on Form SS-4.

Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

I must enter my TIN in the appropriate box. If I am a sole proprietor, I may enter my SSN or EIN. I will also see the chart below for further clarification of name and TIN combinations. If I do not have a TIN, I will follow the instructions under How to Get a TIN above.

For Payees Exempt From Backup Withholding

Individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends. For a complete list of exempt payees, I will see the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

If I am exempt from backup withholding, I should still complete the form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding. I will enter my correct TIN, write "Exempt" and sign and date the form. If I am a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, I will give you a completed Form W-8BEN, "Certificate of Foreign Status."

Certification

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown on the Account Signature Card should certify his or her TIN.

- 1. Interest, Dividend, and Barter Exchange Accounts Opened Before 1984 and Broker Accounts That Were Considered Active During 1983 I must give my correct TIN, but do not have to sign the certification.
- 2. Interest, Dividend, Broker and Barter Exchange Accounts Opened After 1983 and Broker Accounts That Were Considered Inactive During 1983 I must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If I am subject to backup withholding and am merely providing you with my correct TIN, I must check the box which indicates that I am subject to backup withholding.
- 3. Real Estate Transactions
I must sign the certification.
- 4. Other Payments
I must give my correct TIN, but I do not have to sign the certification unless I have been notified of an incorrect TIN. Other payments include payments made in the course of your trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services, payments to a non-employee for services (including attorney and accounting fees), and payments to certain fishing boat crew members.
- 5. Mortgage Interest Paid by Me, Acquisition or Abandonment of Secured Property, or Cancellation of Debt, or IRA Contributions
I must give my correct TIN, but I do not have to sign the certification.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their laws.

The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

IV. (A) FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY FOR ACCOUNTS OTHER THAN CHECKING ACCOUNTS AND TERM SHARE (CERTIFICATE) ACCOUNTS

You may place a hold for uncollected funds on any check or draft deposited to my account. Your Funds Availability Policy for Checking accounts (see Section B below) is hereby extended to all other share accounts. The hold periods described below are designed to protect against the possibility of an item being dishonored. If a hold is placed on any item, you will send me a notice, typically on the voucher/receipt, of when I may draw against the funds.

The following items are not subject to the Funds Availability Policy and the availability of funds on these items will be determined by you on a "case-by-case" basis:

1. If you receive notice that the item(s) has/have been or will be dishonored by an intermediary bank or depository institution on which it is drawn as defined by the California Uniform Commercial Code
2. If the item is deposited within thirty (30) calendar days of the opening of the account
3. Items for which you reasonably believe to be uncollectible including but not limited to those cases where the drawer or drawee has become or is reasonably believed will become, subject to bankruptcy, receivership or similar proceedings, or when you believe that a fraud or kiting situation exists
4. Items drawn on an office located outside of the United States
5. If the item is subject to processing delay, that is, presentment delay, a mutilated item, a counter check, or an improperly encoded item
6. Items of $2,500 or more, other than an item drawn on the Credit Union.
7. Items deposited to an account which, within a six (6) month period, has been overdrawn or subject to be overdrawn on three (3) separate occasions excluding accounts with overdraft privileges unless the credit line has been exceeded

If an item, such as an insurance draft, a dealer draft or a check drawn on a foreign bank is presented to you, it will be handled as a collection item. When an item submitted for collection is finally and irrevocably paid, you will credit my account.

Any delay by you beyond the time limits prescribed shall be excused if caused by interruption of communication facilities, suspension of payments by a bank or savings institution, emergency conditions or other circumstances beyond your control provided that you exercise such diligence as the circumstances required.

In no event does the above policy affect your right to accept or reject an item for deposit or to require written notice of an intended withdrawal.

(B) FUNDS AVAILABILITY POLICY FOR CREDIT UNION CHECKING ACCOUNTS

Your policy is to delay the availability of CERTAIN funds that I deposit in my CHECKING account. During the delay, I may not withdraw the funds in cash and you will not use the funds to pay checks that I have written or pay Automated Clearing House (ACH) or Point-of-Sale purchase debits.

DETERMINING THE AVAILABILITY OF A DEPOSIT

The length of the delay is counted in business days from the day of my deposit. Every day is a business day except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If I make a deposit before 3:00 p.m. on a business day that you are open, you will consider that day to be the day of my deposit. However, if I make a deposit after 3:00 p.m. or on a day you are not open, you will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day you are open.

DEPOSITS MADE AT THE CREDIT UNION SAME-DAY AVAILABILITY

Funds from the following deposits are available on the business day of my deposit:

1. U. S. Treasury checks that are payable to me
2. State and local government checks that are payable to me
3. Wire transfers, including preauthorized credits, such as Social Security benefits, direct deposits, and payroll payments
4. Any check issued to me by Farmers Insurance Group of Companies, such as payroll, profit sharing, dividend, etc.
5. Cashier's, certified, and teller's checks that are payable to me
6. Traveler's checks
7. Checks drawn on the Credit Union
8. Cash
9. Federal Reserve Bank checks, Federal Home Loan Bank checks, and postal money orders, if these items are payable to me
10. Personal checks up to $1,000, provided I am on one of your "net check" programs
11. Personal/business checks up to $225
12. We may reverse any provisional credit for items that are lost, stolen, or returned. Actual credit for deposits of, or payable in, foreign currency will be at the exchange rate in effect on final collections in U.S. dollars. We are not responsible for transactions by mail or outside depository until we actually record them. We will treat and record all transactions received after our "daily cutoff time" on a business day we are open or received on a day we are not open for business, as if initiated on the next business day that we are open.

OTHER CHECK DEPOSITS

To find out when funds from other check deposits will be available, your policy is to make funds from checks available as follows:

1. The first $225 checks will be available on the first business day after the day of my deposit.
2. Funds exceeding $225 from checks will be available on the second business day after the day of my deposit. (However, longer delays may apply. See below.)

LONGER DELAYS MAY APPLY

Funds I deposit by check may be delayed for a longer period under the following circumstances:

1. You believe a check I deposit will not be paid.
2. I deposit checks totaling more than $5,525.00 on any one day.
3. I redeposit a check that has been previously returned unpaid.
4. I have overdrawn my account repeatedly in the last six months.
5. There is an emergency such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

You will notify me if you delay my ability to withdraw funds for any reason, and you will tell me when the funds will be available. This notice will typically be printed on the voucher/receipt. Funds will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of my deposit. Longer delays with legitimate business need may apply.

SPECIAL RULES FOR NEW ACCOUNTS.

If I am a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days my account is open: Funds from electronic direct deposits to my account will be available on the day you receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,525.00 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, traveler's, and federal, state and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of my deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to me. The excess over $5,525.00 will be available on the ninth business day after the day of my deposit. If my deposit of these checks (other than U.S. Treasury check) is not made in person to one of your employees, the first $5,525.00 will not be available until the second business day after the day of my deposit.

Funds availability from all other check deposits will be determined on a case-by-case basis. I will refer to the voucher/receipt to know when funds will be available.

DEPOSITS MADE AT SHARED BRANCH SERVICE CENTERS

Funds from the following deposits are available on the business day of my deposit

1. Cash
2. Government checks that are payable to me
3. Federal Reserve Bank or Federal Home Loan Bank checks if these items are payable to me

3. Negotiable Instruments should be made payable to member exactly as appears on Credit Union issued debit card.

(C) SPECIAL NOTICE REGARDING ENDORSEMENT STANDARDS

The federal law dealing with funds availability requires the financial institution's endorsement area on the back of a check be kept clear and unobstructed. This rule is designed to prevent unnecessary delays in processing my deposits as well as to promote speedier returns of dishonored checks. Only the 1-1/2 inch space from the "trailing edge" (the left edge of the check when it is facing me) can be used by me for endorsements or any other markings.

You will not be responsible for any damages incurred in the event I deposit an item which is subsequently returned unpaid by the paying bank and that return is "late" due to markings on the check caused by me or a prior endorser on the back of the check.

In the event that I draw a check on my Checking or Loan account with you, I am responsible for any delay or misrouting of the check caused by markings placed on the check by me that obscure any depository endorsements placed by you or your agent and I agree to hold you harmless and indemnify you from any liability due to such delay or misrouting.

FARMERS INSURANCE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION ELECTRONIC SERVICES DISCLOSURE AND AGREEMENT

In this Disclosure and Agreement, the words "I," "me," "mine," "my," "us," and "our" mean each and every person who is subject to terms set forth in this Agreement and Disclosures set forth herein, as a result of signing an Account Signature Card for one or more savings (share) and checking (share draft) account(s) with you. (The term "person" includes individuals, trust corporations, limited liability companies, limited liability partnerships, partnership, and other unincorporated organizations.) The words "you," "your," "yours," and "Credit Union" refer to Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union. Electronic Funds Transfer refers to any transfer of funds that is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephone, computer, or magnetic tape for the purpose of instructing the Credit Union to debit or credit a depository type of account, such as a checking or savings account.

This includes the following services:

1. Automated Teller Machine (ATM) transfers (includes deposits, withdrawals, credit card cash advances);
2. Point-of-sale transfers, which includes both PIN-based and signature-based;
3. Transfers initiated by a debit card or debit card number, whether or not initiated through an electronic terminal, computer, or phone;
4. Online bill payments; and

5. Transfers initiated through a personal computer or mobile device, including "Bill Pay" and Person to Person transfers, mobile banking, the Credit Union's internet platform.

These transactions may include the following: Direct deposits to an account from payroll, pension, Social Security, IRS, other financial institutions, other companies, and/or persons, recurring debits initiated by a payee, check conversion entries, transactions authorized over the phone, or transactions authorized via the Internet. This list of examples is not inclusive, and the ACH network may add capability to address different types of transactions in the future.

The above examples #1-#5 of electronic services are accessed by means of a card and/or a code (PIN or password). My acceptance, retention, or use of a card or code constitutes an agreement between you and me as described below. All transactions which would otherwise require my signature, or other authorized signature, shall be valid and effective, as if signed by me when accomplished through use of a card or code.

Examples of what is NOT an electronic funds transfer include, non-exclusively, paper checks processed via check channels, wire transfers, and automatic transfers occurring within the Credit Union.

I understand and agree that I will not use any of my Credit Union accounts, nor any Credit Union access device for any illegal activity.

I understand that the agreements, terms, conditions, rules and regulations applicable to any accounts accessed remain in full force and effect and continue to be applicable, except as specifically modified by this Disclosure and Agreement.

BUSINESS DAYS

The Credit Union's business days are Monday through Friday, 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Pacific Time. Holidays are not included. The above (1-5) electronic transactions are generally available twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week.

Transactions accomplished after the close of normal business each day shall be posted on your next business day, but may be effective-dated to the date of the transaction. Electronic transfers set up to take place on a non-business day will occur on the next business day.

MEMBER'S LIABILITY

I must tell you at once if I believe my card or code (which includes user name and password) has been lost or stolen. Telephoning is the best way of keeping my possible losses down. I could lose all the money in my account, plus my maximum overdraft line of credit.

I am fully liable for an electronic funds transfer from my account initiated by a person to whom I furnished my card and/or code or other access to my account, even if such person exceeds the authority given, unless I have notified you that transfers by that other person are no longer authorized.

UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS ON CONSUMER ACCOUNTS ONLY

A Consumer Account is one that is opened by a natural individual primarily for personal, household, or family purposes. Consumer accounts do NOT include business purpose accounts, accounts held under a trust agreement, or escrow accounts.

If I believe my card/code has been lost or stolen on my consumer account, and I tell you within two (2) business days after I learn of the loss or theft, I can lose no more than $50 if someone used my card/code without my permission.

If I do NOT tell you within two (2) business days after I learn of the loss or theft of my card or code on my consumer account, and you can prove you could have stopped someone from using my card/code without my permission if I had told you within two (2) business days after I learned of the loss or theft of my card or code, I could lose as much as $500.

Also, if my statement shows transfers that I did not make, I will tell you at once. If I do not tell you within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to me (or made available to me if I have agreed to eStatements), I may not get back any money I lost after the sixty (60) days if you can prove that you could have stopped someone from taking the money, if I had told you in time. If an electronic funds transfer on my Consumer Account was not authorized by me or that my card or code was lost or stolen, I must give you written or oral notice. If I give you written notice it must contain all necessarily pertinent information that will enable you to investigate my claim.

Pertinent information includes non-exclusively minimally the date and amount of each unauthorized transaction, to whom the transfer was made, in known, if I know the person to whom the transfer was made, how I know that person, the facts and circumstances of where and how I lost, had stolen, or was tricked into telling the person who made the unauthorized transfer from my consumer account(s), how and when I realized/discovered that I lost, had stolen, or was tricked into giving someone my card or code, any other information I have with regard to the unauthorized transaction.

If I give you oral notice, it must also contain all pertinent information about the unauthorized transfer. If I give you oral notice, I must follow-up by giving you a statement in writing within ten (10) days of my first contacting you about the unauthorized transfer that contains the pertinent information, or you will not have to give me provisional credit. You will tell me how and where to send a follow-up written statement when I orally tell you about the unauthorized transfer/charge.

If I have a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept me from telling you timely, you will extend the time for a reasonable time period.

NON-CONSUMER ACCOUNT ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS

Non-consumer accounts include any account established primarily for anything OTHER than person, family, and household purposes of a natural individual. Non-consumer accounts include non-exclusively business, trust, and escrow accounts; accounts opened by a business, partnership, organization, LLC, LLP, non-corporate entity, or corporation.

I understand and agree that I, the Account Owner, will be fully liable and responsible for any authorized transactions that are the result of theft, fraud, or loss of a card or code (including, non-exclusively user name or password) that occurs on any non-consumer account, unless it is due to the error of the Credit Union or it is within the Special Exception for VISA POINT-OF-SALE TRANSACTIONS explained in the next section.

SPECIAL EXCEPTION FOR VISA POINT-OF-SALE TRANSACTIONS ON ACCOUNTS OWNED BY INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS.

I will not have any liability for unauthorized transfers on a lost or stolen Visa check card that were issued to sole proprietorships or for consumers purposes, if I provide proper notification of the unauthorized transfer within sixty (60) days of your having sent a statement (or provided access if I have signed up for eStatements), showing the unauthorized transfers, if the unauthorized transaction was processed through VISA. You will be required to provide a written statement indicating all pertinent information regarding my claim of unauthorized transactions.

Pertinent information includes non-exclusively minimally the date and amount of each unauthorized transaction, to whom the transfer was made, in known, if I know the person to whom the transfer was made, how I know that person, the facts and circumstances of where and how

I lost, had stolen, or was tricked into telling the person who made the unauthorized transfer from my consumer account(s), how and when I realized/discovered that I lost, had stolen, or was tricked into giving someone my card or code, any other information I have with regard to the unauthorized transaction.

This exception does not apply to Visa check card transactions at an ATM. This exception will not apply if the Credit Union determines that I was grossly negligent or fraudulent in handling my account or card. This exception also does not apply to any VISA check card issued on a corporate account, prepaid VISA cards, Visa Purchasing Card Transactions, anonymous Prepaid Card Transactions.

AUTOMATED CLEARING HOUSE (ACH) TRANSACTIONS

If an Automated Clearing House (ACH) transaction (preauthorized recurring transfer) takes place that I did not authorize (never authorized, or previously authorized but cancelled, or authorized but for a different amount or different date), you must hear from me as soon as I am aware of the unauthorized transfer, or within sixty (60) days of your sending the periodic statement showing the unauthorized or erroneous entry. If I tell you orally, you require me to give or send you a signed "written statement of unauthorized debit".

ACH activity on Corporate Accounts - For corporate accounts, the rights and obligations of a party with regard to a credit entry subject to UCC-Article 4A shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of California. You are not required to give next day notice to me of receipt of an ACH item and you will not do so. However, you will continue to notify me of the receipt of payments in my monthly statement. For unauthorized or improper ACH debits to a corporate account, I, as the corporate account holder, must notify you of the unauthorized or improper transaction on the date that the transaction settles to the account. Notification must be in writing. If I do not notify you of the unauthorized transaction on the settlement date of the transaction, you will make a good faith effort to return the unauthorized transaction. However, you will make no warranties or guarantee regarding the return, and will not be responsible for any loss suffered by myself, account holder, due to unauthorized activity where timely notification is not given.

ERROR RESOLUTIONS

I must call or write you as soon as possible, if I think my statement or receipt is wrong, or if I need more information about a transaction listed on the statement or receipt. You must hear from me no later than sixty (60) days after you sent me the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. I will:

1. Tell you my name and account number,

2. Describe the error or the transfer I am unsure about, and explain as clearly as I can why I believe it is an error or why I need more information, and

3. Tell you the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If I tell you orally, you will require that I send you my complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days.

You will tell me the results of your investigation within ten (10) business days after you hear from me and will correct any error promptly. If you need more time, however, you may take up to forty-five (45) days to investigate my complaint or question. If you decide to do this, you will provisionally credit my account within ten (10) business days for the amount I think is in error, so that I will have the use of the money during the time it takes you to complete your investigation. If you ask me to put my complaint or question in writing and you do not receive it within ten (10) business days, you may choose not to provisionally credit my account during the additional time that may be required to investigate my complaint or question.

Exception. You have up to twenty (20) business days to provisionally credit my account if the notice of error involves an electronic fund transfer to or from an account within thirty (30) days after the first deposit to the account was made (i.e., it is a new account). For new account transactions, or foreign-initiated transactions, or resulting from point-of-sale debit card transactions (including all debit card transactions), those for cash only, at merchants' POS terminals, and also including mail and telephone orders), you may take up to ninety (90) calendar days to complete your investigation.

Visa Debit Card Exception. You will provide provisional credit within five (5) business days of notification for unauthorized point-of-sale transfers, if my card was not issued to a corporation.

If you decide there was no error, you will send me a written explanation within three (3) business days after you finish your investigation. I may ask for copies of the documents that you used in your investigation.

SPECIAL EXCEPTION FOR VISA POINT-OF-SALE TRANSACTIONS ON ACCOUNTS OWNED BY INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS.

I will not have any liability for unauthorized transfers on a lost or stolen Visa check card that were issued to sole proprietorships or for consumers purposes, if I provide proper notification of the unauthorized transfer within sixty (60) days of your having sent a statement (or provided access if I have signed up for eStatements), showing the unauthorized transfers. You will be required to provide a written statement indicating all pertinent information regarding my claim of unauthorized transactions.

Pertinent information includes non-exclusively minimally the date and amount of each unauthorized transaction, to whom the transfer was made, in known, if I know the person to whom the transfer was made, how I know that person, the facts and circumstances of where and how I lost, had stolen, or was tricked into telling the person who made the unauthorized transfer from my consumer account(s), how and when I realized/discovered that I lost, had stolen, or was tricked into giving someone my card or code, any other information I have with regard to the unauthorized transaction.

This exception does not apply to Visa check card transactions at an ATM. This exception will not apply if the Credit Union determines that I was grossly negligent or fraudulent in handling my account or card. This exception also does not apply to any VISA check card issued on a corporate account.

CREDIT UNION LIABILITY If you do not complete a transfer to or from my account on time or in the correct amount according to your agreement with me, you may be liable for my actual direct (non-consequential) losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. You will not be liable, for instance:

1. If through no fault of yours, I do not have enough money in my account to make the transfer;

2. If the transfer would go over the credit limit of my overdraft line;
3. If the ATM where I am making the transfer does not have enough cash;
4. If the terminal or system was not working properly and I knew about the breakdown when I started the transfer;
5. If circumstances beyond your control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that you have taken;
6. If you have received incorrect or incomplete information from me or from third parties (e.g., the U.S. Treasury, an Automated Clearing House, or a terminal owner);
7. If my card or code has been reported lost or stolen, has expired, is damaged so that the terminal cannot read the encoding strip, is inactive due to non-use, is retained by you at my request, or because my code has been repeatedly entered incorrectly;
8. If the funds in my account are subject to an uncollected funds hold, legal process or other circumstances restricting such transaction or payment (e.g., Regulation D restrictions);
9. If failure to complete the transaction is done to protect the security of my account or the electronic terminal system;
10. If I enter incorrect data while conducting an electronic transaction;
11. If the pre-notification of a preauthorized transfer has been rejected by the receiving depository financial institution or the Automated Clearing House;
12. If the pre-authorized transfer describes the receiver inconsistently by name and account number and the transmittal is completed based on the account number only; or
13. If mail service is delayed or the payee does not process the payment correctly or in a timely manner, or if Bill Pay mortgage payments are entered with a due date later than the first of the month.

CONFIDENTIALITY

You will disclose information to third parties about my account or the transfers I make:

1. Where it is necessary for completing transfers;
2. In order to verify the existence and condition of my account for a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant;
3. In order to comply with a government agency or court orders; or
4. If I give you my verified authorization.

FEES

Any fees charged will be deducted from my Checking or Membership Savings account. Fees are stated on the Service Charges and Fee Schedule.

TYPES OF TRANSFERS AND LIMITATIONS

Automatic Overdraft

I understand that I may make transfers (withdrawals, cash advances, payments) only to the extent that I have available funds available in my deposit account(s). An overdraft occurs when I do not have enough funds in my account to cover a transaction, but you pay it anyway. By saying enough funds the Credit Union means "enough available funds," which does not include funds in my account that are owed on pending transactions that have been approved but not yet paid, or funds from checks that have been deposited but are still on hold and are uncollected. The Credit Union has a form called "OVERDRAFT PROTECTION" that will allow me to link my designated checking account to another of my Credit Union savings, checking and/or my Credit Union line of credit, or credit card accounts. There is no fee for signing up for the Credit Union's Overdraft Protection program.

In order to link account(s) to my checking account, I must designate which accounts I want linked and sign the Overdraft Protection form.

CAUTION: If my Checking Account is held jointly, overdraft protection makes it possible for my joint owner to cause overdrafts which could draw funds from my individual Savings Accounts and/or my individual Line of Credit Account or Credit Card.

If I overdraw any account, you may withdraw funds from any account I have with you an/or make a cash advance from my line of credit account, if any, or a withdrawal from other accounts on which I am a joint owner, even if I do not link accounts. Overdrafts that cannot be honored are payable on demand and may result in termination of my account(s).

Credit Card and Debit Card

The Credit Union may issue upon my request and subject to your approval a card device that will allow me to conduct agreed upon transactions on my designated accounts. Retention of and use of these cards constitute my acceptance of the terms and conditions set forth in this and the Credit Card agreement. These cards are the property of FIGFCU and shall be returned upon demand.

The Credit Union does not charge me a fee for using my Debit Card at an ATM if the ATM is in a network in which the Credit Union participates. As of the printing of this document, the Credit Union participates in PLUS® and STAR® network ATMs and Interlink and STAR® system point-of-sale terminals. However, if I use an ATM outside the Credit Union's network or the United States, the third party will charge a fee, which will appear on my statement. The ATM should tell me the fee amount before I complete the transaction..

If I use my Debit Card to purchase something through the internet from a merchant who is either outside the United States or is within the United States and using a financial institution (also known as an acquiring bank) outside the United States or sells the services or products in a currency other than United States dollars, I will be charged a VISA foreign transaction fee, which is listed on the Service Charges and Fees schedule. I will also be charged the same fee if I use my Debit Card outside the United States.

ATM (Automated Teller Machine) Transactions

A Personal Identification Number (PIN) is required for using an debit card. The PIN is custom selected by each cardholder and can be updated by the cardholder if forgotten.

Further, I may not utilize my card and/or account for the purchase of any goods or services on the Internet that involve gambling, gaming, betting or any similar transaction or activity. Funds should be available in your payment account four business days prior to the Scheduled Payment Date.

"Due Date" is the date reflected on your Biller statement for which the payment is due; it is not the late date or grace period.

"Scheduled Payment" is a payment that has been scheduled through the Service but has not begun processing.

PAYMENT SCHEDULING

The earliest possible Scheduled Payment Date for each Biller (typically four (4) or fewer Business Days from the current date) will be designated within the application when you are scheduling the payment. Therefore, the application will not permit you to select a Scheduled Payment Date less than the earliest possible Scheduled Payment Date designated for each Biller. When scheduling payments you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is no later than the actual Due Date reflected on your Biller statement unless the Due Date falls on a non-Business Day. If the actual Due Date falls on a non-Business Day, you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is at least one (1) Business Day before the actual Due Date. Scheduled Payment Dates must be prior to any late date or grace period.

SERVICE GUARANTEE

Due to circumstances beyond the control of the Service, particularly delays in handling and posting payments by Billers or financial institutions, some transactions may take longer to be credited to your account. The Service will bear responsibility for any late payment related charges up to $50.00 should a payment post after its Due Date as long as the payment was scheduled in accordance with the guidelines described under "Payment Scheduling" in this Agreement.

PAYMENT AUTHORIZATION AND PAYMENT REMITTANCE

By providing the Service with names and account information of Billers to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize the Service to follow the Payment Instructions that it receives through the payment system. In order to process payments more efficiently and effectively, the Service may edit or alter payment data or data formats in accordance with Biller directives.

When the Service receives a Payment Instruction, you authorize the Service to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close as reasonably possible to the Scheduled Payment Date designated by you. You also authorize the Service to credit your Payment Account for payments returned to the Service by the United States Postal Service or Biller, or payments remitted to you on behalf of another authorized user of the Service.

The Service will use its best efforts to make all your payments properly. However, the Service shall incur no liability and any Service Guarantee shall be void if the Service is unable to complete any payments initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

If, through no fault of the Service, your Payment Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account;

The payment processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the Service about the malfunction before you execute the transaction;

You have not provided the Service with the correct Payment Account information, or the correct name, address, phone number, or account information for the Biller; and/or, circumstances beyond control of the Service (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transaction and the Service has taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if the Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment Account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a Biller which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Service shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account, and for directing to the proper Biller any previously misdirected transactions, and, if applicable, for any late payment related charges.

PAYMENT METHODS

The Service reserves the right to select the method in which to remit funds on your behalf to your Biller. These payment methods may include, but may not be limited to, an electronic payment, an electronic to check payment, or a laser draft payment(funds remitted to the Biller are deducted from your Payment Account when the laser draft is presented to your financial institution for payment).

PAYMENT CANCELLATION REQUESTS

You may cancel or edit any Scheduled Payment (including recurring payments) by following the directions within the application. There is no charge for canceling or editing a Scheduled Payment. Once the Service has begun processing a payment it cannot be cancelled or edited, therefore a stop payment request must be submitted.

STOP PAYMENT REQUESTS

The Service's ability to process a stop payment request will depend on the payment method and whether or not a check has cleared. The Service may also not have a reasonable opportunity to act on any stop payment request after a payment has been processed. If you desire to stop any payment that has already been processed, you must contact Member Service. Although the Service will make every effort to accommodate your request, the Service will have no liability for failing to do so. The Service may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days. The charge for each stop payment request will be the current charge for such service as set out in the applicable Service Charges and Fee Schedule.

PROHIBITED PAYMENTS

Payments to Billers outside of the United States or its territories are prohibited through the Service.

EXCEPTION PAYMENTS

Tax payments and court ordered payments may be scheduled through the Service, however such payments are discouraged and must be scheduled at your own risk. In no event shall the Service be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling of these types of payments. The Service Guarantee as it applies to any late payment related charges is void when these types of payments are scheduled and/or processed by the Service. The Service has no obligation to research or resolve any claim resulting from an exception payment. All research and resolution for any misapplied, misposted or misdirected payments will be the sole responsibility of you and not of the Service.

BILL DELIVERY AND PRESENTMENT

This feature is for the presentment of electronic bills only and it is your sole responsibility to contact your Billers directly if you do not receive your statements. In addition, if you elect to activate one of the Service's electronic bill options, you also agree to the following:

Information provided to the Biller - The Service is unable to update or change your personal information such as, but not limited to, name, address, phone numbers and e-mail addresses, with the electronic Biller. Any changes will need to be made by contacting the Biller directly. Additionally it is your responsibility to maintain all usernames and passwords for all electronic Biller sites. You also agree not to use someone else's information to gain unauthorized access to another person's bill. The Service may, at the request of the Biller, provide to the Biller your e-mail address, service address, or other data specifically requested by the Biller at the time of activating the electronic bill for that Biller, for purposes of the Biller informing you about Service and/or bill information.

Activation - Upon activation of the electronic bill feature the Service may notify the Biller of your request to receive electronic billing information. The presentment of your first electronic bill may vary from Biller to Biller and may take up to sixty (60) days, depending on the billing cycle of each Biller. Additionally, the ability to receive a paper copy of your statement(s) is at the sole discretion of the Biller. While your electronic bill feature is being activated it is your responsibility to keep your accounts current. Each electronic Biller reserves the right to accept or deny your request to receive electronic bills.

Authorization to obtain bill data - Your activation of the electronic bill feature for a Biller shall be deemed by us to be your authorization for us to obtain bill data from the Biller on your behalf. For some Billers, you will be asked to provide us with your user name and password for that Biller. By providing us with such information, you authorize us to use the information to obtain your bill data.

Notification - The Service will use its best efforts to present all of your electronic bills promptly. In addition to notification within the Service, the Service may send an e-mail notification to the e-mail address listed for your account. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that this information is accurate. In the event you do not receive notification, it is your responsibility to periodically logon to the Service and check on the delivery of new electronic bills. The time for notification may vary from Biller to Biller. You are responsible for ensuring timely payment of all bills.

Cancellation of electronic bill notification - The electronic Biller reserves the right to cancel the presentment of electronic bills at any time. You may cancel electronic bill presentment at any time. The timeframe for cancellation of your electronic bill presentment may vary from Biller to Biller. It may take up to sixty (60) days, depending on the billing cycle of each Biller. The Service will notify your electronic Biller(s) as to the change in status of your account and it is your sole responsibility to make arrangements for an alternative form of bill delivery. The Service will not be responsible for presenting any electronic bills that are already in process at the time of cancellation.

Non-Delivery of electronic bill(s) - You agree to hold the Service harmless should the Biller fail to deliver your statement(s). You are responsible for ensuring timely payment of all bills. Copies of previously delivered bills must be requested from the Biller directly.

Accuracy and dispute of electronic bill - The Service is not responsible for the accuracy of your electronic bill(s). The Service is only responsible for presenting the information we receive from the Biller. Any discrepancies or disputes regarding the accuracy of your electronic bill summary or detail must be addressed with the Biller directly.

This Agreement does not alter your liability or obligations that currently exist between you and your Billers.

If you permit other persons to use the Service or your password or other means to access your account, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize. If you believe that your password or other means to access your account has been lost or stolen or that someone may attempt to use the Service without your consent or has transferred money without your permission, you must notify the Service at once by calling 800.877.2345, ext. 6631 during member service hours.

YOUR LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED TRANSFERS

If you tell us within two (2) Business Days after you discover your password or other means to access your account has been lost or stolen, your liability is no more than $50.00 should someone access your account without your permission. If you do not tell us within two (2) Business Days after you learn of such loss or theft, and we can prove that we could have prevented the unauthorized use of your password or other means to access your account if you had told us, you could be liable for as much as $500.00. If your monthly financial institution statement contains transfers that you did not authorize, you must tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was sent to you, you may lose any amount transferred without your authorization after the sixty (60) days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money had you told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) prevented you from telling us, we may extend the period.

If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your Payment Account within ten (10) Business Days for the amount you think is in error. If we ask you to submit your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) Business Days, we may not provisionally credit your Payment Account. If it is determined there was no error we will mail you a written explanation within three (3) Business Days after completion of our investigation. You may ask for copies of documents used in our investigation. The Service may revoke any provisional credit provided to you if we find an error did not occur.

It is our general policy to treat your account information as confidential. However, we will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transactions you make ONLY in the following situations:

Where it is necessary for completing transactions;

Any financial fees associated with your standard deposit accounts will continue to apply. You are responsible for any and all telephone access fees and/or Internet service fees that may be assessed by your telephone and/or Internet service provider.

FAILED OR RETURNED TRANSACTIONS

In using the Service, you are requesting the Service to make payments for you from your Payment Account. If we are unable to complete the transaction for any reason associated with your Payment Account (for example, there are insufficient funds in your Payment Account to cover the transaction), the transaction may not be completed. In some instances, you will receive a return notice from the Service. In such case, you agree that:

You will reimburse the Service immediately upon demand the transaction amount that has been returned to the Service;

You will reimburse the Service for any fees it incurs in attempting to collect the amount of the return from you; and,

The Service is authorized to report the facts concerning the return to any credit reporting agency.

ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS

This Agreement, applicable fees and service charges may be altered or amended by the Service from time to time. In such event, the Service shall provide notice to you. Any use of the Service after the Service provides you a notice of change will constitute your agreement to such change(s). Further, the Service may, from time to time, revise or update the applications, services, and/or related material, which may render all such prior versions obsolete. Consequently, the Service reserves the right to terminate this Agreement as to all such prior versions of the applications, services, and/or related material and limit access to only the Service's more recent revisions and updates. The Service will use its best efforts to research and correct the returned payment and return it to your Biller, or void the payment and credit your Payment Account. You may receive notification from the Service.

INFORMATION AUTHORIZATION

Your enrollment in the Service may not be fulfilled if the Service cannot verify your identity or other necessary information. In order to verify ownership of the Payment Account(s) and/or Billing Account, the Service may issue offsetting debits and credits to the Payment Account(s) and/or Billing Account, and require confirmation of such from you. Through your enrollment in the Service, you agree that the Service reserves the right to request a review of your credit rating at its own expense through an authorized bureau. In addition, you agree that the Service reserves the right to obtain financial information regarding your account from a Biller or your financial institution (for example, to resolve payment posting problems or for verification).

DISPUTES

In the event of a dispute regarding the Service, you and the Service agree to resolve the dispute by looking to this Agreement. You agree that this Agreement is the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between you and the Service which supersedes any proposal or prior agreement, oral or written, and any other communications between you and the Service relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. If there is a conflict between what an employee of the Service or Member Service Department says and the terms of this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement will prevail.

ASSIGNMENT

You may not assign this Agreement to any other party. The Service may assign this Agreement to any future, directly or indirectly, affiliated company. The Service may also assign or delegate certain of its rights and responsibilities under this Agreement to independent contractors or other third parties.

NO WAIVER

The Service shall not be deemed to have waived any of its rights or remedies hereunder unless such waiver is in writing and signed by the Service. No delay or omission on the part of the Service in exercising any rights or remedies shall operate as a waiver of such rights or remedies or any other rights or remedies. A waiver on any one occasion shall not be construed as a bar or waiver of any rights or remedies on future occasions.

CAPTIONS

The captions of sections hereof are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia, without regard to its conflicts of laws provisions. To the extent that the terms of this Agreement conflict with applicable state or federal law, such state or federal law shall replace such conflicting terms only to the extent required by law. Unless expressly stated otherwise, all other terms of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

THE FOREGOING SHALL CONSTITUTE THE SERVICE'S ENTIRE LIABILITY AND YOUR EXCLUSIVE REMEDY. IN NO EVENT SHALL THE SERVICE BE LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOST PROFITS (EVEN IF ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY THEREOF) ARISING IN ANY WAY OUT OF THE INSTALLATION, USE, OR MAINTENANCE OF THE EQUIPMENT, SOFTWARE, AND/OR THE SERVICE.

ZELLE® AND OTHER PAYMENT SERVICES ADDITIONAL TERMS

DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE

We have partnered with the Zelle Network® (Zelle) to enable a convenient way to transfer money between you and other Users using aliases, such as email addresses or mobile phone numbers (Zelle Payment Service, as further described below). Zelle provides no deposit account or other financial services. Zelle neither transfers nor moves money. You may not establish a financial account with Zelle of any kind. All money will be transmitted by a Network Financial Institution. THE ZELLE PAYMENT SERVICE IS INTENDED TO SEND MONEY TO FRIENDS, FAMILY AND OTHERS YOU TRUST. YOU SHOULD NOT USE THE ZELLE PAYMENT SERVICE OR OTHER PAYMENT SERVICES TO SEND MONEY TO RECIPIENTS WITH WHOM YOU ARE NOT FAMILIAR OR YOU DO NOT TRUST. The term Zelle and Other Payment Terms means these Zelle and Other Payment Services Additional Terms.

In addition to the Zelle Payment Service, we provide other payment services under these Terms of Service. First, these additional services allow you to send money to people if you provide the Eligible Transaction Account information and other contact information for the Receiver; such transactions are not sent via Zelle. Second, outside Zelle, we allow you to establish a one-time payment for a payment recipient for which processing shall be initiated at a later specified date up to one (1) year. Third, outside Zelle, we enable you to establish a recurring series of payments to a payment recipient for which processing shall be initiated on dates you specify. These three payment services and any other payment services that we provide under these Zelle and Other Payment Terms are referred to as Other Payment Services in these Zelle and Other Payment Terms. Although future-dated payments and recurring payments are outside Zelle, we may ultimately send those transactions via Zelle when the applicable date of payment arrives, in which case the applicable payment transaction is part of the Zelle Payment Service, not the Other Payment Services. The term Zelle and Other Payment Services means the Zelle Payment Service and the Other Payment Services.

The Zelle and Other Payment Services enable you: (1) to initiate a Payment Instruction from an Eligible Transaction Account to an account at a U.S. financial institution; and/or (2) to receive a payment from another person into an Eligible Transaction Account, in U.S. dollars. All payments must be made through the Site and are subject to the terms of this Agreement and applicable laws and regulations, in each case as in effect from time to time. Receipt of payments may be made through the Site and is subject to the terms of this Agreement and applicable laws and regulations, in each case as in effect from time to time. In some instances, receipt of payments may be made through other locations besides our Site, such as the Zelle mobile handset application ("Zelle Standalone Locations") and if you choose to initiate or receive a payment at a Zelle Standalone Location you acknowledge and agree that you shall be subject to the terms of other agreements, including, but not limited to, the "terms of use" for the Zelle Standalone Locations and applicable laws and regulations, in each case as in effect from time to time. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Zelle and Other Payment Services are generally available 24 hours, seven days a week with the exception of outages for maintenance and circumstances beyond our or Zelle€™s control. Live customer service generally will be available Monday through Friday, excluding US financial institution holidays.

The Zelle Payment Service allows for the delivery of payments to Receivers who are also enrolled in the Zelle Payment Service through a Payment Network designed to deliver payments on the same day and potentially within minutes, although actual speed will vary, as described below. The Zelle and Other Payment Services are not instantaneous. Payment delivery speed may vary based upon the fraud, risk and other funds availability policy of each financial institution and Payment Network availability. We are not responsible for the performance, speed, or other acts or omissions of the Payment Networks that may be involved in the transmission of a payment. We shall not be obligated to comply with the Automated Clearinghouse (ACH) Rules in such recovery efforts or otherwise in connection with Zelle and Other Payments unless the applicable transaction is transmitted through the ACH network. We are only responsible for delivery of the applicable Payment Instructions to the applicable Payment Network in the format required by the applicable Payment Network€™s specifications.

PAYMENT AUTHORIZATION AND PAYMENT REMITTANCE

Section 12 of the General Terms do not apply to the Zelle Payment Service. When you enroll to use the Zelle Payment Service or when you permit others to whom you have delegated to act on your behalf to use or access the Zelle Payment Service, you agree to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You represent that you have the authority to authorize debits and credits to the enrolled bank account. In addition to the restrictions set forth in Section 13 of the General Terms, you agree that you will not use the Zelle and Other Payment Services to send money to anyone to whom you are obligated for tax payments, payments made pursuant to court orders (including court-ordered amounts for alimony or child support), fines, payments to loan sharks, gambling debts or payments otherwise prohibited by law, and you agree that you will not use the Zelle and Other Payment Services to request money from anyone for any such payments.

This Section 2(b) does not apply to the Zelle Small Business Service (to the extent made available by us). The Zelle and Other Payment Services are intended for personal, not business or commercial use. You agree that you will not use the Zelle and Other Payment Services to send or receive payments in connection with your business or commercial enterprise. We reserve the right to decline your enrollment if we believe that you are enrolling to use the Zelle and Other Payment Services with your business account or to receive business or commercial payments. We further reserve the right to suspend or terminate your use of the Zelle Payment Service if we believe that you are using the Zelle Payment Service for business or commercial purposes.

You must provide us with an email address that you regularly use and intend to use regularly (i.e., no disposable email addresses) and a permanent mobile phone number that you intend to use for an extended period of time (i.e., no burner numbers). You may not enroll in the Service with a landline phone number, Google Voice number, or Voice over Internet Protocol. Once enrolled, you may: (i) authorize a debit of your account to send money to another User either at your initiation or at the request of that User; and (ii) receive money from another User either at that User's initiation or at your request, subject to the conditions of the Section below titled Requesting Payments. If at any time while you are enrolled, you do not send or receive money using the Zelle Payment Service for a period of 18 consecutive months, then you understand that we may cancel your enrollment and you will not be able to send or receive money with the Zelle Payment Service until you enroll again. When you enroll with Zelle, you may establish one or more profiles. Each profile may be linked to only one bank account or debit card, but you may enroll multiple email addresses or mobile phone numbers in each profile. Once you have enrolled an email address or a mobile phone number with a profile, you may not use that same email address or phone number with any other profile. If we allow you to enroll the debit card we issue to you with the Zelle Payment Service, then the debit card must be issued in conjunction with a United States domestic deposit account, not a United States territory-based account. By providing us with names and mobile telephone numbers, email addresses of Receivers to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize us to follow the Payment Instructions that we receive through the Zelle Payment Service. By providing us with names, bank account information and other contact information for Receivers to whom you wish to direct a payment via the Other Payment Service, you authorize us to follow the Payment Instructions that we receive via the Other Payment Services. Once enrolled, you authorize us to credit your Eligible Transaction Account for payments remitted to you on behalf of a Sender without further approval from you.

When we receive a Payment Instruction from you, you authorize us to debit your Eligible Transaction Account for the amount of any such Payment Instruction plus any related fees in effect (and as disclosed on the Site) at the time you initiate the Payment Instruction, and to remit funds on your behalf. You acknowledge and agree that any applicable fees will be charged when we receive a Payment Instruction from you, regardless of whether the Payment Instruction is ultimately completed. You also authorize us to credit your Eligible Transaction Account for the receipt of payments, including but not limited to those payments returned to us from Receivers to whom you sent payment(s) and those payments that were cancelled and returned to you because the processing of the Payment Instruction could not be completed.

You agree that we will not be liable in any way for any payments that you may receive, regardless of whether you authorized the Sender to send them to you.

We will use reasonable efforts to complete all your Payment Instructions properly. However, we shall incur no liability if we are unable to complete any transaction because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

If, through no fault of ours, the Eligible Transaction Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the Payment Instruction or the Payment Instruction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account;

The Zelle and Other Payment Services are not working properly and you know or have been advised by us about the malfunction before you execute the Payment Instruction;

The payment is refused as described in Section 6 of the Zelle and Other Payment Terms below;

You have not provided us with the correct information, including but not limited to the correct Payment Instructions or Eligible Transaction Account information, or the correct name and address or mobile phone number of the Receiver to whom you are initiating a Payment Instruction; and/or,

Circumstances beyond our control (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, network or system down time, issues with the financial institution, or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the Payment Instruction.

It is the responsibility of the Sender and the Receiver to ensure the accuracy of any information that they enter into the Zelle and Other Payment Services (including but not limited to the Payment Instructions and name, telephone number and/or email address for the Receiver to whom you are attempting to send a payment), and for informing us as soon as possible if they become aware that this information is inaccurate. We will make a reasonable effort to stop or recover a payment made to the wrong person or entity once informed, but we do not guarantee such stoppage or recovery and will bear no responsibility or liability for damages resulting from incorrect information entered by the Sender or Receiver.

SENDING PAYMENTS

You may send money to another User at your initiation or in response to that User's request for money. You understand that use of the Zelle and Other Payment Services by you shall at all times be subject to (i) this Agreement, and (ii) your express authorization at the time of the transaction for us or another Network Financial Institution to initiate a debit entry to your bank account. You understand that when you send the payment, you will have no ability to stop it. When a Sender initiates a Payment Instruction, the Receiver is not required to accept the payment if the Receiver has not enrolled in Zelle. You agree that you as a Sender will not hold us liable for any damages resulting from a Receiver's decision to not enroll in Zelle. For the Zelle Payment Service, you may only cancel a payment if the person to whom you sent the money has not yet enrolled in the Zelle Payment Service. As to the Zelle Payment Service, if the person you sent money to has already enrolled with Zelle, either in the Zelle Standalone Locations or with a Network Financial Institution, then the money is sent directly to their bank account (except as otherwise provided below) and may not be canceled or revoked. Cancellation is addressed more generally as to the Other Payment Services in Section 6 (Payment Cancellation, Stop Payment Requests and Refused Payments for Other Payment Services) below. You may initiate a one-time Payment Instruction to a Receiver for which processing shall be initiated immediately via Zelle. Via the Other Payment Services, you may also initiate (a) a one-time Payment Instruction to a Receiver for which processing shall be initiated at a later specified date up to one (1) year, and (b) a recurring series of Payment Instructions to a Receiver for which processing shall be initiated on the specified dates. Further details about each of these options can be found on the Site.

Payment Instructions initiated to Receivers require you to provide contact information about the Receiver (including an email address and/or mobile telephone number). If the Receiver does not bank at a Network Financial Institution and has not yet enrolled in Zelle, then the Zelle Payment Service will contact the Receiver and request that the Receiver (i) provide information so that the identity of the Receiver may be validated at a Zelle Standalone Location and then (ii) provide Eligible Transaction Account information in order to complete the Payment Instruction (a "Two-Step Transfer"). If the Receiver maintains an Eligible Transaction Account with a Network Financial Institution and has not yet enrolled in Zelle, then the Zelle Payment Service will contact the Receiver regarding enrollment in Zelle and receipt of payment. If the Receiver has already enrolled in Zelle, then the Receiver will receive a message regarding your payment.

Via the Other Payment Services, we also support the sending of money to Receivers if you provide the Eligible Transaction Account information for the Receiver and other contact information for the Receiver; such transactions are not sent via Zelle. You acknowledge and agree that if your Payment Instructions identify an account by name and account number, the relevant financial institution may execute those Payment Instructions by reference to the account number only, even if such account number does not correspond to the account name. You further acknowledge and agree that financial institutions holding the account may choose to not investigate discrepancies between account names and account numbers. We have no responsibility to investigate discrepancies between account names and account numbers, outside of our obligations under the law to investigate errors, described above in Section 22 of the General Terms (Errors, Questions, and Complaints).

In most cases, when you are sending money to another User using the Zelle Payment Service, the transfer will occur in minutes; however, there are circumstances when the payment may take longer. For example, in order to protect you, us, Zelle and the other Network Financial Institutions, we may need additional time to verify your identity or the identity of the person receiving the money. If you are sending money to someone who has not enrolled as a User with Zelle, either via a Zelle Standalone Location or a Network Financial Institution, they will receive a text or email notification instructing them on how to enroll to receive the money. You understand and acknowledge that a person to whom you are sending money and who is not enrolling as a User may fail to enroll with Zelle, or otherwise ignore the payment notification, and the transfer may not occur. The money may also be delayed or the transfer may be blocked to prevent fraud or comply with regulatory requirements. If we delay or block a payment that you have initiated, we will notify you in accordance with your User preferences (i.e. email, push notification). We have no control over the actions of other Users, other Network Financial Institutions or other financial institutions that could delay or prevent your money from being delivered to the intended User.

For the Other Payment Services and those Zelle Payment Service payments where the Site indicates payment will require more than a Business Day, you understand and agree that when you initiate a Payment Instruction from an Eligible Transaction Account, the processing of the Payment Instruction will begin and the debiting of your Eligible Transaction Account will occur as early as the day of such initiation. However, you and the Receiver should not expect the payment funds to be transferred into the Receiver's Eligible Transaction Account any earlier than the next Business Day after you initiated the Payment Instruction. As part of the Other Payment Services, if you request a one-time Payment Instruction to be initiated on a specified date or a recurring series of Payment Instruction to be initiated on specified dates, then the processing of the Payment Instruction will begin on the specified date and the debiting of your Eligible Transaction Account will occur as early as the specified date(s). However, you and the Receiver should not expect the payment funds to be transferred into the Receiver's Eligible Transaction Account any earlier than the next Business Day following the specified date. In addition, in the case of all Two-Step Transfers, the deposit of the payment funds into the Receiver's Eligible Transaction Account (even if debited or withdrawn from your Eligible Transaction Account) may be delayed if the Receiver has not enrolled in Zelle. The Site may contain additional information regarding the delivery of a payment to an Eligible Transaction Account.

As to Recipients who have not yet enrolled with Zelle, you acknowledge and agree that we will begin to process the requested transfer of funds once the Receiver has provided (or we otherwise obtain) all required information, and you hereby authorize and direct us to retain such funds until the earlier of such time as the Receiver has provided (or we otherwise obtain) all required information or fourteen (14) days have elapsed. You further acknowledge and agree that our receipt of money to be transmitted to a Receiver shall not be deemed to have occurred and our obligation to complete a Payment Instruction shall not begin until such time as the Receiver provides us with (or we otherwise obtain) all required information necessary to process the related Payment Instruction in accordance with this Agreement.

RECEIVING PAYMENTS

All transfers of money to you shall be performed by a Network Financial Institution per the direction of that Network Financial Institution customer and at all times subject to the terms and conditions of the relevant service agreement between that Network Financial Institution and its customer, including without limitation any restrictions or prohibitions on permissible transactions. Once a User initiates a transfer of money to your email address or mobile phone number enrolled with the Zelle Payment Service, you have no ability to stop the transfer. Other Payment Service payments may be cancelled by the Sender as set forth in Section 6 (Payment Cancellation, Stop Payment Requests and Refused Payments for Other Payment Services) below. By using the Zelle Payment Service, you agree and authorize us to initiate credit entries to the bank account you have enrolled. If another person wants to initiate a Payment Instruction (including in response to a Zelle Payment Request, if applicable) using the Zelle Payment Service to an Eligible Transaction Account you hold or, as applicable, if you as a Requestor want to initiate a Zelle Payment Request, he, she or you can do that from the Site or from an Eligible Transaction Account at a financial institution that participates in the Zelle Payment Service or at a Zelle Standalone Location. If you are receiving a payment from a business or government agency, your payment will be delivered in accordance with both this Agreement and the procedures of the business or government agency that is sending you the payment.

For the Zelle Payment Service, most transfers of money to you from other Users will occur within minutes. There may be other circumstances when the payment may take longer. For example, in order to protect you, us, Zelle and the other Network Financial Institutions, we may need or Zelle may need additional time to verify your identity or the identity of the person sending the money. We may also delay or block the transfer to prevent fraud or to meet our regulatory obligations. If we delay or block a payment that you have initiated through a request for money, we will notify you in accordance with your User preferences (i.e. email, push notification). You understand and agree that there may be a delay between the time you are notified of the pending Payment Instruction and the deposit of the payment funds into your Eligible Transaction Account, and you may be required to take additional steps to facilitate the deposit of the payment of funds into your Eligible Transaction Account, such as if we have questions regarding possible fraud in connection with the payment. You authorize the Sender, the financial institution which holds the Sender's Eligible Transaction Account and us (including through the Site) to send emails to you and text messages to your mobile phone in connection with the Sender's initiation of Payment Instructions to you, and, as a Receiver, you may receive Zelle Payment Requests, from others through the Zelle Payment Service.

You acknowledge and agree that in the event that funds are transferred into your Eligible Transaction Account as a result of a Payment Instruction and it is determined that such transfer was improper because it was not authorized by the sender, because there were not sufficient funds in the sender's account, or for any other reason, then you hereby authorize us or our Service Provider to withdraw from your Eligible Transaction Account an amount equal to the amount of funds improperly transferred to you.

Requesting Payments. You may request money from another User through a Zelle Payment Request. You understand and acknowledge that Users to whom you send payment requests may reject or ignore your request. Neither we nor Zelle guarantee that you will receive money from other Users by sending a Zelle Payment Request, or that you will receive the amount that you request. Neither we nor Zelle accept responsibility if the other User rejects or ignores your request, or sends you an amount that is less than you request. If a User ignores your request, we may decide or Zelle may decide, in our sole discretion, that we will not send a reminder or repeat request to that User.

In addition to the other restrictions in this Agreement, by accepting this Agreement, you agree that you are not engaging in the business of debt collection by attempting to use the Zelle Payment Service to request money for the payment or collection of an overdue or delinquent debt; to request money that is owed to another person; or to collect any amounts that are owed pursuant to a court order. You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Zelle, its owners, directors, officers agents and Network Financial Institutions from and against all claims, losses, expenses, damages and costs (including, but not limited to, direct, incidental, consequential, exemplary and indirect damages), and reasonable attorney's fees, resulting from or arising out of any Zelle Payment Request that you send that is related to overdue or delinquent amounts. You agree to receive Zelle Payment Requests from other Users, and to only send Zelle Payment Requests for legitimate and lawful purposes. Zelle Payment Requests are solely between the Requestor and recipient and are not reviewed or verified by us or by Zelle. Neither we nor Zelle assume responsibility for the accuracy or legality of such requests and do not act as a debt collector on your behalf or on behalf of the Requestor. We reserve the right, but assume no obligation, to terminate your ability to send Zelle Payment Requests in general, or to specific recipients, if we deem such Zelle Payment Requests to be potentially unlawful, abusive, offensive or unwelcome by the recipient.

If applicable, if you as a Requestor initiate a Zelle Payment Request using the Zelle Payment Service, you acknowledge and agree that as disclosed on the Site (a) the applicable service fee will be deducted from payments received by you from a Sender(s), and (b) no service fee will be charged if you as the Requestor do not receive any payments from the individuals to whom the Zelle Payment Request is sent. Further details about the foregoing can be found on the Site. You acknowledge and agree that individuals to whom you send a Zelle Payment Request may not receive, or otherwise may reject or ignore, your Zelle Payment Request. We do not guarantee that you will receive any payments from individuals by initiating a Zelle Payment Request.

Zelle Small Business Service Users may not send Zelle Payment Requests to Users enrolled with Zelle through Zelle Standalone Locations.

PAYMENT CANCELLATION, STOP PAYMENT REQUESTS AND REFUSED PAYMENTS FOR OTHER PAYMENT SERVICES

Zelle Payment Service payments can only be cancelled in the limited circumstances set forth in Section 3(a) (Sending Payments) above. This Section only applies to the Other Payment Services, not Zelle Payment Services. Sender may cancel the initiation of a Payment Instruction or stop a Payment Instruction at any time until the processing of the Payment Instruction into the Receiver's™ Eligible Transaction Account has begun. Our ability to stop a Payment Instruction or recover funds associated with an unauthorized Payment Instruction will depend on the manner in which the Payment Instruction was initiated, and whether the Payment Instruction to the Receiver's™ Eligible Transaction Account has begun processing. Although we will make a reasonable effort to accommodate a stop payment request and to recover funds associated with an unauthorized Payment Instruction, we will have no liability for failing to do so. We may also require you to present your stop payment request or request to recover funds in writing within fourteen (14) days after contacting customer care. If we charge you to stop the payment or recover funds, then the charge for each stop payment or fund recovery request will be the current charge as set out in our current fee schedule. Payments not claimed by a Receiver who has not enrolled in Zelle will be automatically cancelled fourteen (14) days after the processing of the payment begins. We will, to the extent permitted by law, make reasonable attempts to return any unclaimed, refused, refunded, prohibited, or denied payment to your Eligible Transaction Account or use other reasonable efforts to return such payment to you as permitted by law.

CONSENT TO EMAILS AND AUTOMATED TEXT MESSAGES

Section 8 (Text Messages, Calls and/or Emails to You) of the General Terms does not apply to Zelle Payment Services. By participating as a User, you represent that you are the owner of the email address, mobile phone number, and/or other alias you enrolled, or that you have the delegated legal authority to act on behalf of the owner of such email address, mobile phone number and/or other alias to send or receive money as described these Zelle and Other Payment Terms. You consent to the receipt of emails or text messages from us, from Zelle, from other Users that are sending you money or requesting money from you, and from other Network Financial Institutions or their agents regarding the Zelle and Other Payment Services or related transfers between Network Financial Institutions and you. You agree that we may, Zelle may or either of our agents may use automatic telephone dialing systems in connection with text messages sent to any mobile phone number you enroll. You further acknowledge and agree:

You are responsible for any fees or other charges that your wireless carrier may charge for any related data, text or other message services, including without limitation for short message service. Please check your mobile service agreement for details or applicable fees.

You will immediately notify us if any email address or mobile number you have enrolled is (i) surrendered by you, or (ii) changed by you.

In the case of any messages that you may send through either us or Zelle or that we may send or Zelle may send on your behalf to an email address or mobile phone number, you represent that you have obtained the consent of the recipient of such emails or automated text messages to send such emails or text messages to the recipient. You understand and agree that any emails or text messages that we send or that Zelle sends on your behalf may include your name.

Your wireless carrier is not liable for any delay or failure to deliver any message sent to or from us or Zelle, including messages that you may send through us or through Zelle or that we may send or Zelle may send on your behalf.

To cancel text messaging from us, send STOP to 767666. For help or information regarding text messaging, send HELP to 767666 or contact our customer service at 800-877-2345 X 6631. You expressly consent to receipt of a text message to confirm your STOP request.

Supported Carriers: AT&T, Sprint, T-Mobile, Verizon and others.

Your phone service provider is not the provider of the Zelle and Other Payment Services. Users of the Zelle Payment Service will receive text messages relating to their Payment Instructions and other notices from time to time if a mobile phone number is provided. Data and messaging charges from your telecommunications provider may apply, and you are responsible for any such charges. In the event your enrolled mobile device is lost or stolen, you agree to update your enrollment information and make the appropriate changes to disable the use of such device. You understand that there are risks associated with using a mobile device, and that in the event of theft or loss, your confidential information could be compromised.

Service Fees and Additional Charges. You are responsible for paying all fees associated with your use of the Zelle and Other Payment Services. Applicable fees will be disclosed in the user interface for, or elsewhere within, the Zelle and Other Payment Services or Site. Additional fees may apply for small business Users enrolled in the Zelle Small Business Service. YOU FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT ANY APPLICABLE FEES WILL BE CHARGED REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE PAYMENT INSTRUCTION IS COMPLETED, UNLESS THE FAILURE TO COMPLETE THE INSTRUCTION IS SOLELY DUE TO OUR FAULT, except for those fees that are specifically use-based, such as Zelle Payment Requests, if applicable. There may be a charge for additional transactions and other optional services. You agree to pay such charges and authorize us to deduct the calculated amount from your designated Eligible Transaction Account for these amounts and any additional charges that may be incurred by you. Any financial fees associated with your standard deposit accounts (or Other Eligible Transaction Accounts) will continue to apply. You are responsible for any and all telephone access fees and Internet service fees that may be assessed by your telephone and Internet service provider. Section 18 of the General Terms (Failed Or Returned Payment Instructions) applies if you do not pay our fees and charges for the Zelle and Other Payment Service, including without limitation if we debit the Eligible Transaction Account for such fees, as described in this Section, and there are insufficient fees in the Eligible Transaction Account.

Refused Payments. We reserve the right to refuse to pay any Receiver. We will attempt to notify the Sender promptly if we decide to refuse to pay a Receiver designated by the Sender. This notification is not required if you attempt to make a prohibited payment under this Agreement.

Returned Payments. In using the Zelle and Other Payment Services, you understand that Receivers may reject Payment Instructions or otherwise return payments only if the Receiver is not enrolled in Zelle. We will use reasonable efforts to complete Payment Instructions initiated through the Zelle Payment Service.

Consent to Share Personal Information (Including Account Information).

In addition to Section 20 (Information Authorization) of the General Terms, by accepting this Agreement, you consent to our disclosure of your personal information (including bank account information) as necessary to complete payment transactions in accordance with our customary processes and procedures, which may include, without limitation, the following:

As necessary to resolve a problem related to a transfer or payment between you and another User;

To verify the existence of your bank account, or debit card, as applicable;

To comply with government agency or court orders;

To our affiliates, as permitted by law;

To verify your identity for purposes of compliance with applicable laws, including without limitation the USA PATRIOT Act;

To comply with inquiries in connection with fraud prevention or any investigation;

For our general business purposes, including without limitation data analysis and audits; or

As otherwise permitted by the terms of our Privacy Policy.

WIRELESS OPERATOR DATA

In addition to Section 20 (Information Authorization) of the General Terms, you acknowledge that we or Zelle may use information on file with your wireless operator to further verify your identity and to protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud or unauthorized use of the Service. By using the Zelle Payment Service, you authorize your wireless operator (AT&T, Sprint, T-Mobile, US Cellular, Verizon, or any other branded wireless operator) to disclose your mobile number, name, address, email, network status, customer type, customer role, billing type, mobile device identifiers (IMSI and IMEI) and other subscriber status and device details, if available, to our third party service provider solely to allow verification of your identity and to compare information you have provided to us or to Zelle with your wireless operator account profile information for the duration of our business relationship. See Zelle's Privacy Policy at <https://www.zellepay.com/privacy-policy> for how it treats your data. Please review our Privacy Policy in order to better understand our commitment to maintaining your privacy, as well as our use and disclosure of your information.

EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED HEREIN AND SUBJECT TO APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT WILL WE, ZELLE, ITS OWNERS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, AGENTS OR NETWORK FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGES WHATSOEVER, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO ANY DIRECT, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY OR OTHER INDIRECT DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF (I) ANY TRANSACTION CONDUCTED THROUGH OR FACILITATED BY THE ZELLE PAYMENT SERVICE; (II) ANY CLAIM ATTRIBUTABLE TO ERRORS, OMISSIONS, OR OTHER INACCURACIES IN THE ZELLE PAYMENT SERVICES DESCRIBED OR PROVIDED; (III) UNAUTHORIZED ACCESS TO OR ALTERATION OF YOUR TRANSMISSIONS OR DATA; OR (IV) ANY OTHER MATTER RELATING TO THE ZELLE PAYMENT SERVICES DESCRIBED OR PROVIDED, EVEN IF WE OR ZELLE HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IF YOU ARE DISSATISFIED WITH THE ZELLE PAYMENT SERVICE OR WITH THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, YOUR SOLE AND EXCLUSIVE REMEDY IS TO DISCONTINUE USING THE ZELLE PAYMENT SERVICES.

IN THOSE STATES WHERE THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF LIABILITY FOR CONSEQUENTIAL OR INCIDENTAL DAMAGES MAY NOT APPLY, ANY LIABILITY OF OURS, ZELLE, ITS OWNERS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS AND AGENTS OR THE NETWORK FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS LIABILITY IN THOSE STATES

You acknowledge and agree that you are personally responsible for your conduct while using the Zelle Payment Service and except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, you agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Zelle, its owners, directors, officers, agents and Network Financial Institutions from and against all claims, losses, expenses, damages and costs (including, but not limited to, direct, incidental, consequential, exemplary and indirect damages), and reasonable attorney's fees, resulting from or arising out of your use, misuse, errors or inability to use the Zelle Payment Service, or any violation by you of the terms of this Agreement.

YOUR LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED TRANSFERS

Section 16 (Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers) of the General Terms shall not apply to the Zelle Payment Service. Immediately following your discovery of an unauthorized Zelle Payment Service Payment Instruction, you shall communicate with customer care in the manner set forth in Section 6 of the General Terms above. You acknowledge and agree that time is of the essence in such situations. The best way to minimize your loss is to call us immediately. You will have no liability for unauthorized transactions if you notify us within sixty (60) days after your monthly financial institution statement which shows the unauthorized transaction has been sent to you. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was sent to you, you may lose any amount transferred without your authorization after the sixty (60) days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money had you told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) prevented you from telling us, we may in our sole discretion extend the period.

When you give someone your password or other means to access your account through which you access the Zelle and Other Payment Services, you are authorizing that person to use your service, and you are responsible for all transactions that person performs while using your service. All transactions that person performs, even those transactions you did not intend or want performed, are authorized transactions. Additionally, transactions that you or someone acting with you initiates with fraudulent intent are also authorized transactions.

Note: These liability rules only apply to Eligible Transaction Accounts used for personal, family and household purposes.

We will use reasonable efforts to complete all your payment transactions properly. However, we shall incur no liability if we are unable to complete any transaction because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

Use of the Services: Following receipt of your notification approving my use of the Services, I am authorized by you to remotely deposit paper checks I receive to my account with you (the "Account") by electronically transmitting a digital image of the paper checks to you for deposit. My use of the Services constitutes my acceptance of the terms and conditions of this End Users Agreement. I agree to comply with the hardware and software requirements set forth at the complete agreement Exhibit "A," which is attached hereto and incorporated by this reference. By scanning checks on a conforming scanner and delivering the images electronically and information required hereby to you or your designated processor. Upon receipt of the digital image, you will review the image for acceptability. I understand and agree that receipt of an image does not occur until after you notify me of receipt of the image via the Deposit History feature. I understand that, in the event I receive a notification from you confirming receipt of an image, such notification does not mean that the image contains no errors or that you are responsible for any information I transmit to you. You are not responsible for any image that you do not receive. Following receipt of the image, you may process the image by preparing a "substitute check" or clearing the item as an image. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, you reserve the right, within your sole and absolute discretion, to accept or reject any item for remote deposit into my Account. I understand that any amount credited to my Account for items deposited using the Services is a provisional credit and I agree to indemnify you against any loss you suffer because of your acceptance of the remotely deposited check.

In addition I agree that I will not (i) modify, change, alter, translate, create derivative works from, reverse engineer, disassemble or decompile the technology or Services, (ii) copy or reproduce all or any part of the technology or Services; or (iii) interfere, or attempt to interfere, with the technology or Services.

I promise to indemnify and hold you harmless from any damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees) or other harm arising out of any violation thereof. This indemnity will survive termination of my Account and this Agreement.

Check Requirements. (See exhibit "A" of the complete agreement) Any image of a check that I transmit to you must accurately and legibly provide all the information on the front and back of the check at the time presented to me by the drawer. Prior to scanning the original check, I will endorse the back of the original check. My endorsement will include my signature, Member and Account numbers. The scanned image of the check transmitted to you must accurately and legibly provide, among other things, the following information: (1) the information identifying the drawer and the paying bank that is preprinted on the check, including complete and accurate magnetic ink character recognition (MICR) information and the signature(s); and (2) other information placed on the check prior to the time an image of the check is captured, such as any required identification written on the front of the check and any endorsements applied to the back of the check, including that "this is a Remote Deposit". The image quality for the check will meet the standards for image quality established by the American National Standards Institute ("ANSI"), the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve, and any other regulatory agency, clearing house or association. I hereby agree that I will only scan and deposit a check(s) as that term is defined in Federal Reserve Board Regulation CC. In addition, that this check be deemed an "item" within the meaning of Article 4 of the Uniform Commercial Code (1990 Official Text).

DOCUMENTATION AND NOTICES

Terminal Transfers

I can get a receipt at the time I make any transfer to or from my account using an ATM or point-of-sale terminal.

Pre-authorized Deposits

If I have arranged to have direct deposits made to my account at least once every sixty (60) days from the same person or company, I may call FONLINE at 800.877.2345 or log into Online Banking at www.figfcu.org to find out whether or not the deposit has been made.

Periodic Statements

I will get a monthly account statement, unless there are no transfers in a particular month. In any case, I will get a statement at least quarterly. If the only electronic fund transaction service I have with you is pre-authorized deposits, or recurring transfers I initiate between my own accounts at the Credit Union, then you reserve the right to send me a quarterly statement only.

Pre-authorized Payments

If I have authorized a third party to initiate automatic payments from my Credit Union account, I can get copies of the pre-authorized payment documentation from the third party being paid at the time I give them the initial authorization.

If my pre-authorized payment varies in amount, the party who will receive the payments is required to tell me ten (10) days before such payment when it will be made and how much it will be. I may agree with the person being paid to receive this notice only when the payment will differ by more than a certain amount from the previous payment, or when the amount would fall outside certain limits I set.

Pre-authorized Transfers

If I have initiated preauthorized transfers through my Credit Union and the entry is not transmitted to another financial institution due to insufficient funds (NSF), I will be notified of the insufficient funds by mail. I may then request that the entry be initiated again. Bill Pay will attempt transfers on five (5) successive days sending an email notice of the insufficient funds each day, charging an NSF fee after the fifth attempt.

If I have initiated pre-authorized transfers through my Credit Union and the entry is transmitted, but later returned by the Automated Clearing House, I will be sent a notice by mail no later than one (1) business day after the Credit Union's receipt of the returned entry. The Credit Union shall have no obligation to take other action with respect to the returned entry.

STOP PAYMENTS

Pre-authorized Payments

If I have told you in advance to make regular payments out of my account, I have a right to stop any of these payments.

If I want to stop any of the pre-authorized payments, other than those I set up through Bill Pay, I must call or write you at the phone numbers or address stated above under Telephone Number and Address, in time for you to receive my request three (3) business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made. If I call, you may also require me to put my request in writing and get it to you within fourteen (14) days after I call. Such stop payment notice will apply only to that particular amount and payee, only for the temporary time specified in the request. To be sure that a third party does not bill me again for the "stopped" payment or to cancel the entire preauthorized payment arrangement, I will contact the third party.

If I order you to stop one of these payments three (3) business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and you do not do so, you may be liable for my losses and damages to the extent provided by law.

E-SIGNATURE

You specifically agree that any electronic signature as subject to the E-Sign Act, will be subject to the same guarantees and requirements of a personally signed agreement.

You also reserve the right to recall the card(s) through retrieval by an electronic terminal.

I may, by written request, terminate any of the electronic services provided for in this Disclosure and Agreement. If I ask you to terminate my account or the use of any access device (card or codes), I will remain liable for subsequent authorized transactions performed by any party to my account.

- Avoiding reaching in my wallet or purse in front of the ATM
- Avoiding counting my cash at the ATM

TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO ZERO-FEE CHECKING ACCOUNT (effective November 3, 2025).

This amendment provides the specific terms and conditions that apply to the Zero-Fee Checking Account and is intended to be read together with the Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union Truth in Savings Disclosure (TISA).

This account has no monthly maintenance fee and no minimum balance requirement. Fees may apply for certain optional services such as stop-payment requests, wire transfers, or replacement debit cards. Transactions that would overdraw your account will generally be declined. While FIGFCU does not charge fees for use of out-of-network ATMs, the ATM owner or network may impose a fee. Please refer to our Truth in Savings Disclosure for a complete list of fees and terms applicable to this account.

ZERO-FEE CHECKING

1. The Zero-Fee Checking Account has no monthly maintenance fees and does not require a minimum balance. There are no overdraft or non-sufficient funds (NSF) fees, and in-network ATMs are free to use. While we do not charge fees for out-of-network ATMs, the ATM owner or network may apply a fee. Account holders receive a free debit card, free access to online and mobile banking, and the ability to set up direct deposits at no cost. Paper statements are available upon request, and optional services such as, stop payments, wire transfers, replacement debit cards (rush cards) may incur charges. Other fees including return item fees also apply. Please refer to the Credit Union's Service Charges and Fees schedule located in the Truth-In-Savings Disclosure for all other fees and charges. Deposits, including direct deposits and cash, are generally available immediately, while check deposits are typically available the next business day or may be longer depending on check holds, if applicable. This account is designed to prevent overdrafts past the allowable limits. Transactions that would overdraw your account may be declined. There are no overdraft fees for ATM or one-time debit card transactions. Deposits are insured up to applicable limits by the NCUA. The Zero-Fee Checking Account provides simple, low-cost access to your funds with transparency and no fees for overdrafts, in-network ATM fees, and monthly maintenance fees.
