New Year's Resolutions: Time To Pay The Piper

You've been on a well-deserved spree of fun, food, festivity... and now possibly debt. Planning the payback—in the form of a Financial New Year's Resolution – can be challenging, but here are a few of the more popular and easily managed financial ideas we've found to motivate you.

Spend Less. Many financial analysts offer rule-of-thumb guidelines for spending relative to income: spend a maximum of 50% of take-home pay on your needs, and limit your wants expense to 15-20%.

We all have regular expenses—food and shelter to name a few. Some we habitually nickel-and-dime like gasoline. While, others like that coffee pass unnoticed but quickly add up—and this provides an incentive to cut down. If saving is your big resolution, look to renegotiate routine expenses like cell phone and cable bills.

But if holiday spending took a toll and debt is creeping up all around you, consider consolidating it with a low-rate loan, like our flexible-term Signature Loan.

Save More — Out Of Site, Out Of Mind Can Be a Good Strategy. According to the American Enterprise Institute we save too little—which is bad for us both personally and as a nation. So how do we make saving habitual? Spending less is a great catalyst and incentive. But without a plan, a penny saved may end up being a penny spent elsewhere. So create a savings plan. One creative approach is to round up purchases to the nearest dollar and move the difference to a savings account, which is exactly what your Credit Union's Round It Up service does. Or consider our Holiday Club, an automated savings option that makes holiday budgeting painless.

CEO's View

Hard to believe it's time to say it again . . . Happy New Year! Thank you for choosing us.

This year, we gave back about $2 million during our Credit Union Gives Back campaign. This is where we walk our talk by giving back to you extra money that we earned because of your relationship with us. Once we know we've earned enough to build up our net worth, we give excess funds back to you. We did that again, for the 4th year running.

Did you happen to save the money we gave back to you? Sounds like the beginning of a lecture? No lecture—just fact: Most Americans don't save anywhere near enough for a comfortable retirement. Scary! Take it from me, because I know: Your 60s will be here before you know it. If you've been working hard to minimize your taxable income, keep in mind that your Social Security benefit may be reduced as a result.

Don't think Social Security will even be around by the time you retire? I call that bad planning. Some might even call it planning to be poorer. Even if you're one of the fortunate few who can look at Social Security as a "nothing" part of your future income (and trust me, precious few of us can say that), would you rather get $2,500 a month or $500 a month? It's easier to answer that one.

Actually, saving (investments don't count - more risky) gives you peace of mind, which allows you to worry less, sleep better, and hence have better overall health! You might make a fortune investing in risky things, or you might go broke. As a saver at your Credit Union, you will be securing your peace of mind, and your family's financial future. Absolutely! Sounds great to me.

This is the time of the year for many to make new year's resolutions. Funny thing about resolutions: They require a massive amount of self-discipline in order to become reality. As to budgeting and saving, do some research and then set up a realistic action plan. You'll find that you can save more with us. Why? Because our dividend rates blow those of most banks (and other credit unions) out of the water.

Don't wait to receive monies from our next Credit Union Gives Back program in 2017. Start saving now!

Be safe and try to stay healthy.

Best regards,

Mark Herter
CEO

Prepare for the Downside. Americans are traditionally optimistic—so budgeting for a setback sounds almost unpatriotic. But aftershocks from the Great Recession six years later remind us otherwise. On this note, Forbes reported that in 2016, 63% of Americans had insufficient funds to cover a $500-$1000 emergency. Experts recommend you build a rainy-day fund to cover up to six months' worth of expenses—to cover job loss, medical emergency or household need. Putting these funds in a Money Market Account or a Certificate of Deposit (CD) are popular options. ■

We Don't Need No Education . . .

Let's be real. Money-management habits and financial education aren't high on the list of favorite childhood pastimes. So this responsibility usually falls to a parent or caregiver—sometimes with mixed success. This is one reason why so many young adults struggle to budget when they leave home. According to a recent T. Rowe Price survey, less than half of children said their parents do a 'Very Good or Excellent' job of teaching them about money and finances. Help your children get a head start in fiscal responsibility by bringing money and finance to life. A few fun facts to start you off:

Wampum: This was one of the first forms of colonial currency, introduced to New England in 1627 by Dutch settlers in New York who traded with Native Americans. Wampum was made of primarily quahog shells. In 1637, it was made legal tender and accepted as payment for taxes. Ultimately it was replaced by coinage, otherwise you'd probably still be asking: "Buddy. Can You Lend me a Clam?"

Beans Means Money: The Aztec empire didn't only drink cocoa. They used it as an early barter currency. Cocoa beans could be exchanged for anything, including payment for labor at the rate of 20 beans/trip for a porter. Counterfeit cocoa was also an issue. No kidding! We have contemporary records citing the problem of cunningly crafted wax forgeries.

To instill money-management skills and financial awareness, take advantage of teachable events:

- When your child gets a cash gift from a friend or relative, discuss the benefits of saving a portion—that will grow in value for later use.
- A visit to the grocery store is a great classroom. Compare choices, e.g., name-brand versus store-brand and discuss the relative costs and benefits of each.
- A trip to your Credit Union can also double as a lesson in finance; how money "grows" for example. Your Credit Union has a special 24-month CD for children that permits up to 6 additional deposits during its term. Each deposit can serve as another teachable opportunity on the road to financial independence!

Notice of Annual Meeting

Please mark your calendar
Wednesday, April 26, 2017 at 12:30PM PT
Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union
4601 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 110, Los Angeles, CA

All members are invited to Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union's (the "Credit Union's") Annual Meeting, which will be held on Wednesday, April 26, 2017, at 12:30PM PT. The Annual Meeting will be held at the Credit Union's headquarters, located at 4601 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 110, in Los Angeles, California.

Members will have a chance to meet the staff and officials who make our Credit Union work. The Credit Union will provide reports on our current financial status, our plans for the future, and announce the results of our election.

Notice of Nominees

The Credit Union's Board of Directors has appointed a Nominating Committee to nominate at least one (1) nominee for each vacancy in accordance with the Bylaws. Under the Credit Union's Bylaws nominating policy, the eleven (11) members of the Board of Directors should consist of the following:

The Board of Directors shall be comprised of individuals with a solid business cross-section from various fields of expertise. Further, and in particular, the Board shall represent the Farmers agency force, all retirees, and Farmers corporate employees.

In accordance with the nominating policy under the Bylaws, the members of the Nominating Committee for the 2017 Credit Union Election have nominated six (6) candidates for six (6) open positions on the Board of Directors. Unless there are additional candidates nominated by petition, four (4) of the candidates nominated by the nominating committee will serve on the Board of Directors for three (3) year terms, one will serve an unexpired ex-Director's term for two (2) years, and one will serve a one (1) year term. This will maintain the staggered 3-year term Board election Bylaw for all Directors, going forward on a 3-4-4 (total of 11 Directors) election basis, every year. This 2016 election year adjusts the timing cycle, given the expansion of the Board from nine (9) to eleven (11).

If there are additional nominations by petition, there will be an election by mail ballot. In that case, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes in the election will each serve their appropriate terms.

The six (6) candidates selected by the Nominating Committee are set forth on the attached statement of qualifications and biographical data.

Petition for Nomination

Any member who wishes to petition for nomination to serve on the Board of Directors may do so by submitting a petition for nomination with the original signatures of at least 430 Credit Union members no later than 3:30PM PT on Friday, March 17, 2017. Each nominee by petition must submit a signed certificate stating that the nominee is agreeable to nomination and will serve if elected. The nominee should include a statement of qualifications and biographical data with his or her certificate. Anyone wishing to use the petition process should contact Gladys Garcia at the Credit Union at 323.209.6006. A posting of all nominees will be made at each Credit Union branch by Wednesday, March 22, 2017.

Please note that there will be no nominations from the floor at the Annual Meeting because nominations are only permitted by petition or by the Nominating Committee.

Voting Procedure

As noted above, the Nominating Committee has nominated one (1) candidate for each position to be filled on the Board of Directors. If the Credit Union receives one (1) or more additional valid petitions for nomination, there will be more nominees than positions to be filled. In that case there will be an election.

An election, if necessary, will be determined by plurality vote and will be conducted by mail ballot, which would be mailed/emailed on or about Wednesday, April 5, 2017.

The following individuals have been nominated by the Committee.

Each nomination to the Farmers Insurance Federal Credit Union's Board of Directors should include: nominee's name, number of years with Farmers or other select employer group that is eligible for Credit Union membership, job title and duties, current responsibilities, and information related to how this experience would serve the Credit Union Board and members.
